

Powerfully Dark Spiritual Forces, the Global Elite, and the UNITED NATIONS

Fred DeRuvo

Copyright © 2013 by Study-Grow-Know

All rights reserved. Written permission must be secured from the publisher to use or reproduce any part of this book, except brief quotations in critical reviews or articles.

Published in Scotts Valley, California, by Study-Grow-Know www.studygrowknow.com • www.rightly-dividing.com

Scripture quotations are from The Holy Bible, English Standard Version®, copyright © 2001 by Crossway Bibles, a publishing ministry of Good News Publishers. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

Images used in this publication (unless otherwise noted) are from clipartconnection.com and used with permission, ©2007 JUPITERIMAGES, and its licensors. All rights reserved.

All Woodcuts used herein are in the Public Domain and free of copyright.

All Figure illustrations used in this book were created by the author and protected under copyright laws, © 2013.

Cover art: Meditation for earth © Elenarts - Fotolia.com

Edited by: Hannah Brady

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data

DeRuvo, Fred, 1957 –

ISBN 0988183323

EAN-13 978-0-9881833-2-2

1. Religion / Religion, Politics & State

CONTENTS

Foreword:	5
Chapter 1: Lucifer	7
Chapter 2: Spiritual Forces in the UN.....	12
Chapter 3: It's All About Meditation	22
Chapter 4: Out of the Shadows, Pt. 1	28
Chapter 5: Out of the Shadows, Pt. 2	37
Chapter 6: Out of the Shadows, Pt. 3	42
Chapter 7: Who is Kryon?	54
Chapter 8: Are We Really Getting It?	63
Chapter 9: Sorting It Out.....	73
Chapter 10: Secret Societies	85
Chapter 11: Israel.....	99
Chapter 12: False Flags	109
Chapter 13: Other Secret Societies	120
Chapter 14: Return of Christ.....	131
Chapter 15: Gaining Life	145

The earth is the LORD'S, and all it contains,

The world, and those who dwell in it.

– Psalm 24:1

FOREWORD

I think it is absolutely fascinating what we do not know about the forces in the spiritual realm. We really only know what God has chosen to reveal to us through His Word and that is minimal at best. Any other source is simply not trustworthy at all.

With respect to the United Nations – a force that is becoming dominant in society today – I also believe that few people truly understand the foundation upon which the UN was built and how it operates. Of course, I'm not referring to the physical stone foundation upon which the UN building sits. I'm talking about the spiritual forces that seem to have worked to bring representatives of many nations together for seemingly one purpose. What I tend to wonder is whether or not the UN is the modern day version of the Tower of Babel through which the global elite works to unite the world. It may be one very real part of the puzzle.

Throughout this book, I deal with the reality of what the UN is all about, from its foundational goals to the working out of the same. Why is the UN important to so many nations in the first place? Why has the UN been empowered to stand over nations – in essence taking at least some sovereignty from those nations – who empowered the UN, while at the same time using those nations to bring about a global enterprise that ties in perfectly with New Age beliefs?

The UN is not merely a building with hundreds of people and representatives from member nations. The UN is far more than that. It is a true spiritual body. Those spirits originate and emanate from the spiritual dimensions that are off-limits to human beings. We can neither see what they do, nor understand fully how they interact. What we do see are the results of this interaction that occurs in the spiritual realm and spills over into our physical realm.

The spiritual powers, forces, dominions, and powers that have built themselves into the very fabric of the UN have little difficulty foisting themselves into our world through the people connected to the UN. Those who attend lectures, meditate in the Meditation Room of the UN, and in general work to achieve the goals of what they believe will usher in a world based on a higher order, do so because of their belief in the principles for which the UN has become known.

The problem, of course, is that behind the thick spiritual climate of the UN lies something extremely ominous, dangerous, and seriously demonic. Those forces are constantly being invited into this world by the global elite, who seem to be at the very heart of what many call the shadow or invisible government, by which most other governments throughout the world, including America's, are merely fronts.

It is like the reference in Daniel 11:37-38 regarding the god of forces. We know this phrase is referencing the final world ruler, the man of sin that Paul speaks of in 2 Thessalonians 2, and the one who will stand in the Holy of Holies declaring himself to be god.

The UN seems destined to become a force the world will reckon with and we can only assume that if the Antichrist does not rise from within that group, he will certainly make full use of it from without. What does the future hold and why are there so many things regarding the UN that appear to be so secretive?

In this book, I attempt to roll back the curtain on the deeply spiritual aspect of the United Nations, how it began, and who controls it, and we'll also answer the question regarding its true purpose.

Fred DeRuvo, March 2013

Chapter 1

Lucifer

It always seems to go back to ol' Slew Foot. He is the one to whom many radicals openly admire and point. He is the favored “son” of Creation to far too many in this world, and their belief in and worship of him seems to know no bounds.

The opening pages of Saul Alinsky's book titled Rules for Radicals includes the following statement: “Lest we forget just one over-the-shoulder acknowledgement to the very first radical: from all our legends, mythology, and history (and who is to know where mythology leaves off and history begins – or which is which), the first radical known to man who rebelled against the establishment and did it so effectively that he at least won his own kingdom – Lucifer.”¹

¹ Alinsky, Saul, Rules for Radicals (Vintage Books 1981)

Since the first election of Mr. Obama, we have heard the name Saul Alinsky cited often. For those on the Left, Alinsky is a man of renown and someone to be revered for his bravery, his intellectual prowess, and his understanding of how to overthrow something, replacing it with something that to many seems far better. For the Right, he is an atheist, filled with treason, and someone who is evil through and through.

At the very least, Saul Alinsky was a very real radical and a force with which to be reckoned. The fact that he acknowledges – in a positive way – the being and character of Satan (Lucifer) tells us that he, like many who think as he thought, believed that Satan, in his rebellion, did something that was altogether magnificent and worthy of praise.

Because of what Satan achieved by standing up to God (Alinsky uses the phrase “the establishment”), people like Alinsky believe that the best is yet to come for this world. However, in order for that to take place, Alinsky and his followers fully trust that a great upheaval must occur throughout society. It is literally an “out with the old and in with the best” philosophy.

One author, in assessing Alinsky’s tactics, sums things up thusly: *“The driving force of the Alinsky model is in the action, specifically in guiding the action in such a way that you cause your ‘enemy’ to react rather than act.”*²

What is amazing is how many individuals throw praise of some sort to Lucifer. As is the case for Alinsky – whether he believes in the “myth” of Lucifer or not – the truth seems to be that he admires what Lucifer allegedly did, whether in myth or reality, in showing his strength of character and his rebellion because it gained for him, in Alinsky’s own words, “his own kingdom.”

² Hedgpeth, Jeff (2012-05-04). Rules for Radicals Defeated: A Practical Guide for Defeating Obama / Alinsky Tactics (p. 55). Kindle Edition.

Biblically speaking, Lucifer's kingdom is this world, and after his fall, Lucifer became known as Satan. Satan rebelled against God not just physically, but emotionally and intellectually as well. Satan came to the point of believing that he was a self-made creature, not at all dependent upon God for the beginning or continuance of life. This mistake cost him quite a bit initially, and in the end, it will cost him quite a bit eternally.

The Bible clearly shows us that Satan is moving toward his ultimate demise. He is not the victor over God he believes himself to be, but at every step of the way, God rules over Satan and often overrules Satan's decisions as well. This is not the result of an individual who has power over God as Satan (and his followers) likes to think. It is the result of someone who was created by God and will always be answerable to God.

Since his fall, Satan has been doing whatever he can to raise his throne to be equal with God's. He uses the kingdom of this world to bring about his concocted plan that he hopes will ultimately enslave all humanity as his serfs and make God obsolete.

Isn't it interesting that in essence, this is what the global elite want to do as well? In fact, liberals like Alinsky seem to believe that their version of global government – a type of manufactured socialism that rules the future – is the best that man can hope to achieve. This is nothing more than satanic illusion that comes from the heart of this fallen archangel and at best is a contrived and paltry example of God's pure and blessed version of the future.

Psalm 2 tells us that the nations rage against God. The rulers and leaders of nations and empires struggle to break the bonds that tie us to God, with Him as Ruler. The absolute folly of such an effort simply confirms that man is totally depraved to even think that he could collectively or individually disassociate from the Creator of the universe. It is narcissistically appalling, yet this is what many like Alinsky believe.

Unfortunately, many of these types of individual have also long been involved in something called the United Nations. Regarding the UN, here is some pertinent and basic information for those who have either forgotten about the UN or never knew why it existed in the first place.

“There are 193 member states, including every internationally recognized sovereign state in the world but the Vatican City. From its offices around the world, the UN and its specialized agencies decide on substantive and administrative issues in regular meetings held throughout the year.

“The organization has six principal organs:

- General Assembly
- Security Council
- Economic and Social Council
- Secretariat
- International Court of Justice
- United Nations Trusteeship Council”³

As noted above, each “organ” or department of the UN focuses on one specific aspect. Please also note that several of those sections can plausibly become a global counterpoint to individual national sovereignty of many nations. This is something that should concern every American and every citizen of any other sovereign country.

Since the League of Nations was not successful in keeping WWII from occurring, many thought the organization simply was not effective in bringing about one of the stated goals. Because of that, it was replaced with the United Nations. Originally, the UN's membership included 26 nations (in 1942).

³ http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/United_Nations

In 1945, during a meeting in San Francisco, the draft began on the UN Charter. Eventually, a meeting of 51 member nations took place in London, in 1946.

Decades ago and not long after coming into existence, the United Nations sought to gain legal status as "an international legal person due to the case of Reparations for Injuries Suffered in the Service of the United Nations."⁴

What ultimately occurred was that the court decided that the UN was, for all intents and purposes, an international person. What this has come to mean is that "it is a subject of international law and capable of possessing international rights and duties, and that it has capacity to maintain its rights by bringing international claims."⁵

In essence, the UN is seen as a living, viable individual with rights and privileges that any international person enjoys and exercises. But ultimately, what does this mean for nations that are members of the UN? How does the UN exercise authority over these nations and why are nations willing to give the UN the right to rule over them, even in small matters?

⁴ http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/United_Nations

⁵ Ibid

Chapter 2

Spiritual Forces & the UN

Most who know anything at all about the goals of the UN, and who have at least some understanding of what the powers that be as seen in the global elite want to accomplish, realize that for these individuals the UN is all about spiritual resolves. The UN is essentially on a mission to instill within humans throughout the earth a higher knowledge of what they believe to be from those referred to as ascended masters. They ultimately wish to install the messiah, the christ, as world ruler. This christ is by no means Jesus Christ of the Bible, and we need to remember that.

A few years ago, I wrote an article for my blog called *Kryon: Does He Speak the Truth*⁶, and interestingly enough, I highlighted the fact that Leo Carroll – the person who channels the spiritual entity known as Kryon – had visited the UN and had even given talks to the folks there. There are videos of Carroll literally praying to Kryon in front of many UN officials while at the UN offices.

After reading about the UN, I learned about the UN's Meditation Room. I then started doing more research and soon came across a website with a page simply titled "The United Nations." If you take the time to head on over there, you will soon learn that this page was created by the Aquarian Age Community based in Ohio, a New Age think-tank of sorts.

On their page titled "The United Nations," they include separate pages labeled as:

- The Origin of the United Nations
- Preamble to the Charter
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights
- The Spiritual Foundation of the United Nations
- Virtual Tour of the United Nations
- *Organizational Chart of The United Nations*⁷

Of course, as far as I'm concerned, the most interesting thing we can learn about the UN is their spiritual foundation and connection. It literally permeates the entire assembly and structure. It is all about gaining spiritual insight through meditation and working together to create the harmony throughout the globe that the UN desires to achieve. This is accomplished through masses of people, not individuals separately. This is why the growing power of the UN collectively bodes well for New Agers and occultists alike.

⁶ <http://www.studygrowknowblog.com>

⁷ <http://www.aquaac.org/un/untop.html> (12/08/2012)

I'm all for peace, love, and getting along, and I applaud any group that applies itself to working toward those ends. However, the problem – as I see it – is what happens when we begin to rely on spiritual beings, powers, and forces to bring this about when we don't even really know the true nature of those beings.

We do know that the people involved in the UN are not calling out to God. They are certainly not humbling themselves before the God of the Bible, nor are they endeavoring to seek His will for His Creation. Instead, they call out to the “god of forces” (cf. Daniel 11:38).

Here is an interesting explanation of the term “god of forces”; “if you have a bit of understanding of Eastern Religions you will soon come to realize that Kings who claim ‘deity’ become ONE with their ‘deity’, i.e. YOGA – to YOKE/UNION with and become ONE with, as well as others. Therefore, the man [Antichrist] will become ONE with his Demonic Deity (the God of Forces) – hence, the Demonic Spirit Abyss Beast. Moreover, I suggest that the man [Antichrist] will glorify with coveted treasures of gold, silver, precious stones, and coveted things, this/his demonic deity/himself in the STRONGHOLDS/ FORTRESSES, in direct relation to the FORCES.

“Therefore, God of Forces mentioned here in Dan. 11:38 should NOT be understood as a name or a title of the [Antichrist's] Demonic Deity, BUT rather what he does – he is the god/Master/King Deity to/of the Demonic Spirits (Demonic Forces) which are the FORCES of Dan. 11:38 – Abaddon/Apollyon/Adonikim, and their STRONGHOLDS are their pagan TEMPLES where the [Antichrist] will bring his coveted items of gold, silver, etc., as offerings.”⁸

The god of forces then is the powerful demonic entity behind the people that represent him on the earth. This will finally culminate and be most powerfully seen in the coming Antichrist, the being that the UN seeks to introduce to the world as the Christ. It seems to me that this powerful demonic force is already at work in the world and has been at work since the fall of Lucifer/Satan.

⁸ http://www.shalach.org/Antichrist/who is the god of forces.htm (12/07/2012)

The more you learn about the UN, the more you cannot help but conclude that it is a body of human beings through which demonic forces empower those individuals to spread the work of Satan throughout the earth. I have also stated previously that I fully believe that the global elite work through the UN. This allows them to remain anonymously in the shadows until such a time as they wish to come out into the open (if ever). It also gives them a common base through which to work in bringing their goals to completion.

If you stop to consider the fact that the UN represents a good portion of the nations on this globe, then it would make sense for the global elite (as well as the powers of darkness and New Age groups) to work through the UN. It becomes a no-brainer.

There is one very important factor that we all need to constantly remind ourselves about regarding the UN and the people connected to it, though. The globalists actually believe that what they are trying to achieve is a very good thing for this earth. They are blind, of course, to the fact that Satan controls their motives, desires, and actions. The individuals who participate in the activities, the beliefs, and the furtherance of the UN goals fully trust that the eradication of war, poverty, disease, and many other things will finally be accomplished when the world becomes one in purpose. This they see as good, and who does not? However, the problem lies not in the goals, but in how those goals are achieved, along with the power behind them.

Since the UN is at its core a spiritual body, it makes sense that it would rely heavily on the spiritual realm through meditation to achieve its goals. UN officials believe that sincerely seeking gnosis (secret knowledge) through the reliance on the influence of meditation will empower them to bring those goals about.

Today, the UN is being given more power by member nations, and that includes the United States. At the time of this writing, the members of the UN are deliberating attempting to take control of the Internet. They want control of it for various purposes, but you can bet that if they are successful in gaining that control, taxation of some sort will follow. Money (and lots of it) is the key to gaining power. The wealthier the UN becomes, the more power it will attain. Beyond this, it will be in a position to determine what type of speech is allowed on the Internet as well.

Apparently, our ambassador to the UN has stated he is doing everything he can to stop the UN from taking control of the Internet.⁹ Maybe I'm being naive, but it would seem to me that the U.S. can simply opt not to become part of the situation by refusing to allow the UN to gain sovereignty over the Internet here in the USA. It seems simple enough. Why does it appear as though we are cowering and biting our nails with bated breath, waiting to see what the UN will decide as if we are somehow obligated to follow the dictates of the UN? Have we already given them sovereignty over the U.S.?

If that's the case, then all the worrying our ambassador is doing may simply be a case of him pretending he is opposed to the UN's control of the Internet and trying to tell us that the UN may just be too strong to resist. This may result in handing our Internet over to them.

Our ambassador to the UN even stated as much, saying, "The [International Telecommunication Union] is not an international regulatory body. Regulation in the telecom world happens at the national level."¹⁰

⁹ <http://www.foxnews.com/tech/2012/12/03/us-ambassador-were-trying-to-stop-un-from-regulating-internet/> (12/07/2012)

¹⁰ Ibid

So then what is the problem? If the regulations occur at the national level, that seems to mean that the United States has a choice of whether or not to give the UN that authority over our Internet, right? If we have that choice, then we simply say “no.”¹¹

In other areas, the U.S. (through Hillary Clinton) is negotiating with the UN regarding the Arms Trade Treaty. The U.S. is under absolutely no obligation to enter into that treaty or any other treaty with the UN. In fact, the treaty itself states that it is voluntary. So why are we even bothering? It is because our government is working towards and in conjunction with the globalization efforts of the UN. This is true of the Arms Trade Treaty and it is true with respect to the treaty concerning the Internet.

Again, going back to our original point, the UN members see these things as good goals, achievable goals, because they tie in with their desire to see the world become one in purpose. It is clear that our current administration also agrees with this, otherwise Hillary Clinton would not be working with the UN now with respect to the Arms Trade Treaty and another of our ambassadors would not be “worried” about the ramifications of the UN eventually controlling the Internet. If we did not agree with the UN agenda, we would simply stay away and not even be involved in the process.

The UN sees a world where swords are turned into plowshares. It sees a world where peace is the overriding factor, where hunger is a thing of the past, where disease does not exist, and where there is simply one sovereign world nation, governed by the powers within the UN. This is what many people see as the ideal that can be achieved, and anything that stands in the way of that happening should be eradicated.

¹¹ Fortunately, the UN has not been given control of the Internet at this time; however, it is likely they will continue trying to gain control over it as time moves onward.

The trouble, of course, is that this is Satan's counterfeit version of a world that in reality only God can and will create. Satan provides us with lies that are extremely believable to many, and it is clear that many in this world stand with Satan as he attempts to bring his goals for this world to completion. He has taught the world that meditation is where power starts, and from there power is gained to achieve. From that vantage point, all things will come together to create a world where Satan (Lucifer, to the globalists) will do whatever he chooses.

We must realize that the things that Satan chooses to do are those things which are designed to serve only him. He has no interest at all in making this world a better place for us. It is for him he works so that– at some future point and through the power and insight of the Antichrist – he can gather the human forces of this world in a united effort to attempt to overthrow God. Yes, it sounds unbelievable, but this is essentially what the coming Armageddon is all about.

This is the whole point for Satan. Unfortunately, his followers are only thinking in terms of making this world a better place. They do not see the larger plan, and when they are told of it (by Christians), they balk and ridicule. Lucifer would never do that to them, they say. Lucifer only wants humanity to achieve great things. He empowers us through secret knowledge. He is the truth bearer.

The UN is where Satan can continue to work freely to bring all things together under one roof, so to speak. In doing so, the UN becomes his actively immediate arm by which his power will be thoroughly displayed at all levels throughout the world.

There is a great deal of talk today about what is wrong with the U.S. and the current administration. There is much anger because of the travesties that occur within our government. People are extremely frustrated. Folks wonder what can be done. They doubt that voting helps because it's too easy for voter fraud to take place, especially with the voting machines running on software that can be too easily hacked. They know that the courts are available, yet in too many cases judges ignore the full ramifications of the Constitution and do what they want to do, regardless of the rule of law.

People are upset, and rightly so. Though the government is supposed to be for the people and by the people, it is abundantly clear that our government was hijacked long ago. Little by little, our rights are being stripped from us, replaced with the same type of repression that has marked nearly all evil dictatorships of the past.

One overriding truth we need to keep in mind is that all of this originates and emanates from the spiritual realm. It does not start with people. It is simply carried out through people.

Need I remind us of Paul's words in Ephesians 6 where he clearly states that we are not wrestling against other people but against powers and strong forces within the spiritual realm? This is a truth that is too easily missed or forgotten. We need to realize that the battle takes place there, in that world, filtering over into this one.

If we simply try to fight what is happening in our government without first getting on our knees, we have already lost the battle. We must start with prayer. Action, no matter how good it appears, is never a substitute for seeking God's face, His will, and His strength.

I believe that only as we battle in prayer will God fully reveal to us how we are to stand up against the powers of darkness in this realm as evidenced through human beings. But we must always remember that the people through whom the powers of darkness work also need the most important thing in life – salvation. It is really a two-pronged proposition, isn't it? If we take our eyes off of the spiritual forces behind people and focus only on people, we will also lose sight of the fact that these people need Jesus because they will be seen as the enemy.

Focus is the key. If we focus on people as if they are the actual problem, I truly believe our lives will become very frustrated. We will wind up wasting a great deal of time and energy trying to put out this fire or that one.

However, if we learn to focus on the fact that the battle occurs mainly in the spiritual realm, we will see people as nothing more than pawns that are being used by the enemy – who are also in dire need of salvation.

As we focus on the source of the problem – powerful dark forces in the spiritual realm working against God and His Creation – God will help us see what it is we need to be doing. In the end, we will not be simply using up the energy we have in trying to put out a ton of small or large fires. We will be using God's strength to accomplish what He wants us to accomplish because we will be submitted to Him for His purposes.

Focusing on people (instead of the source of the problem) may actually cause us to hate people for what we see them doing. We cannot allow ourselves to go there. We cannot hate Mr. Obama or anyone else in his administration that is doing what they are doing. They are spiritually blind and God is allowing them to do what they are doing, but they still need Jesus. We need to be praying for them.

The UN appears to be a very strong power base and gateway for the spiritual dark forces of other dimensions to this one. Sadly, these forces have a strong foothold in the UN, and consequently, in this world. We need to pray constantly and understand where that battle begins and from where it emanates on a continuing basis. So, will you join me in seeking His will, His face, His strength, and His wisdom to know how to live for His glory in this life so that people will be saved?

I believe God will bring more people to Him for salvation while He continues to allow this world to plummet toward destruction. It seems to me that this is exactly what the Bible teaches.

Chapter 3

It's All About Meditation

It would be nice to think that the UN is simply a group of important people who came together to figure out ways to eradicate war and poverty in the world without the reliance on the spiritual dimension. Unfortunately, it appears that the truth of the matter goes much deeper into the spiritual level.

The UN without doubt has intensely spiritual roots linking it to the dark nature of the occult. We learn this because of three of the UN's secretary-generals, from whom all of this can be traced.

*“Much of the impetus for the New Age transformation of the United Nations can be traced to three individuals: Dag Hammarskjöld and U Thant, UN’s 2nd and 3rd Secretaries-General, respectively; and Dr. Robert Muller, UN’s Under or Assistant Secretary-General for 40 years.”*¹² These three leaders individually and collectively changed the tone and direction of the UN, forever connecting it to the spiritual dimension.

The first individual noted above – Dag Hammarskjöld – became a mystic later in life and from that vantage point sought to influence the way those at the UN saw life. Within the UN Headquarters building, there is a room known as the Meditation Room.¹³ While the public is allowed in during certain times, for the most part it is off-limits to the public, used only by those who are representatives of the various nations that belong to the UN. The Meditation Room is used to gain access to the spiritual realm through meditation and to encourage the “light” from that dimension to shine into this physical realm.

In many ways, of course, this Meditation Room is nothing less than a place where occult worship occurs – worship by members of the UN. According to one source, “The bare wedge-shaped room with its eerie lodestone altar, and the cryptic, Picasso-like mural on the smallest wall, symbolize the empty heart of countless esoteric religious cults down the ages. It therefore comes as no surprise to learn that the U.N. has its own official Indian meditation instructor, Sri Chinmoy, who *holds two meditation sessions per week within the U.N. building, and whose specialty is to lull his audiences into trance with music!”*¹⁴ Isn't this amazing? The UN not only has a special room for worship but also has an official meditation instructor.

¹² <http://fellowshipofminds.wordpress.com/2011/04/07/un-hotbed-of-new-age-satanism-the-occult-elite/> (12/5/2012)

¹³ http://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/imagenes_sociopol/un01_05.jpg (12/05/2012)

What is interesting to me is that by far, the United States is the largest supporter of the UN, financially. This was to the tune of nearly $6.5 billion dollars back in 2009.¹⁵ It seems clear that the United States is supporting, with citizens' tax dollars, a system of meditation that can only be described as worship, yet within the U.S., our government does everything it can to ensure that there is a separation of church and state (at least as it applies to Christianity). This is often undergirded by efforts of numerous atheistic groups who sue everyone in sight, forcing many cities and locales to simply throw in the towel rather than use taxpayer money to fight a battle in court.

As one individual states on his website, *“in the name of universal brotherhood and Gaia environmentalism, the UN is actively promoting a new paganism that is a hodge podge of New Agism, Eastern mysticism, and covert Satanism.”*¹⁶ It has incrementally taken over the UN in what guides that particular body of members.

Regarding the UN's Meditation Room, it has a thought-provoking purpose as stated by the UN on a leaflet they created. “The UN Meditation Room is built in the shape of a truncated pyramid. In the centre is an altar, made out of magnetite, the largest natural piece of magnetite ever mined. For meditation purposes it is probably the most ideal spot on the planet, since the magnetite altar has its foundation straight down, built into the bedrock of the land below; tapping into the energies of the earth itself. The mysterious mural also helps the worshippers tune into esoteric energies, and helps facilitate a state of altered consciousness."¹⁷ It is clear from this alone that the UN takes meditation seriously. Through it, they believe that true harmonic convergence contributing to world peace can occur. They are – in essence – practitioners of the occult, whether they would agree with that sentiment or not.

¹⁴ http://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/sociopolitica/esp_sociopol_un05.htm (12/05/2012)

¹⁵ <http://fellowshipofminds.wordpress.com/2011/04/04/un-is-a-hotbed-of-new-age-satanism/> (12/06/2012)

¹⁶ Ibid

We also learn something about the Meditation Room that will cause many to take notice because of its connection. "The truly disturbing thing about the UN Meditation Room is that its custodian is a mysterious but influential international organization called the Lucis Trust."¹⁸ For anyone who knows anything about the Lucis Trust, they know that when it originated, it was called The Lucifer Trust. The creators of this organization were none other than Alice Bailey and her husband, both theosophists after the order of Madame Blavatsky, noted spiritist and medium.

The name was eventually changed to Lucis Trust to hide the overt connection of the organization to Lucifer (Satan). Anything to do with Lucifer, at least that far back in time (early 1920s), would have raised serious eyebrows. Today, we have people like Saul Alinsky acknowledging in a very complimentary way the rebellion of Lucifer in his book Rules for Radicals.

Because of the onset and onslaught of Heavy Metal, Dark Metal, and many other types of metal music over the years, as well as a growing number of TV series, movies, and video games that acknowledge Satan or Lucifer, worship of him today does not cause people to bat an eye. Things have certainly changed, and not for the better.

¹⁷ <http://fellowshipofminds.wordpress.com/2011/04/05/un-hotbed-of-new-age-satanism-the-meditation-room/> (12/06/2012)

¹⁸ Ibid

The Meditation Room, it can be argued, is merely a place where people can go, think, meditate, and quiet themselves. What's the problem? Of course, we can't forget that the Meditation Room is directly connected to Lucis Trust, which we know was created by Alice Bailey and her husband and therefore rooted in the occult.

Beyond this, it is also very interesting to note that another group – Aquarian Age Community – is also very closely aligned with the work of the UN. One writer correctly observes, “The AAC is yet another organization preparing the way for the ‘Christed One’. However this organization has spread its tentacles far, wide and very very deep. Like the Lucis Trust, the AAC promotes human consciousness as a non-governmental organization (NGO) within the UN. Working with various major UN groups the AAC believes in a world leader, who will usher humanity into a singular spiritual destiny.”¹⁹ (emphasis in original)

Among other things, the Aquarian Age Community (AAC) has been working very hard toward the appearance of the coming (New Age) Christ. This is the same Christ that Benjamin Crème and his organization are looking toward and expecting to find in a man by the name of Lord Maitreya.²⁰

The AAC is committed to directing times of meditation for members of the UN. In this way, the world moves toward the arrival of the Christ, and that is happening through the United Nations. “*A page on meditation on the Aquarian Age Community site...issues an invitation to write to UN@aquaac.org to find out how you can join with an international network to use meditation to support the work of the United Nations.”²¹ (emphasis in original)

¹⁹ http://www.inplainsite.org/html/the_united_nations.html#UNMedit (12/06/2012)

²⁰ <http://www.share-international.org/> (12/06/2012)

²¹ http://www.inplainsite.org/html/the_united_nations.html#UNMedit (12/06/2012)

It would appear that groups like AAC, Lucis Trust, and others who work in and through the UN do so because of the fact that they believe that the coming “reappearance” of the Christ is on the near horizon. They clearly believe that they bring this about through, among other things, the meditative process.

There are more groups that work closely with the UN as support groups and committees to help members become more adept at what they would call the science of meditation. There’s Intuition in Service, World Goodwill, Spiritual Caucus, Interspiritual Dialogue ‘n Action, Kosmos Journal, NGO Committee on Spirituality, Values and Global Concerns, The World Peace Prayer Society, Temple of Understanding, and World Commission on Global Consciousness & Spirituality.²²

One has to stand back and wonder why all these organizations are associated with the UN. What is their purpose? Obviously, based on what they believe and do, their purpose is found in working through the UN to bring about the global government that their spiritual hierarchy has revealed to them, which is to be headed by the Christ, someone the Bible calls the Antichrist. It cannot be ignored then that the spiritual connection of the UN is profoundly rooted in the occult.

²² http://www.inplainsite.org/html/the_united_nations.html#UNMedit (12/06/2012)

Chapter 4

Out of the Shadows, Pt. 1

In the process of researching for this book, I came across some interesting information about a subject that is actually directly related to the UN. It's referred to as the shadow government, which many believe controls things from behind the scenes, hence the name.

I am well aware that there are people who fancy themselves intellectuals of a sort and believe they are guided by logic. Logic tells these folks that though our government (or aspects of it) may be corrupt, there not is a government behind our government that really pulls the strings. For these people, the plain fact of the matter is that they don't like anything that smacks of a conspiracy theory because by their nature conspiracy theories are plainly something that people with tin hats believe in. These are on the fringes of society, not firmly planted within the mainstream.

The problem with this type of "logic" is that it really doesn't hold water when it comes right down to it. In fact, the more you study things, the more you realize that there are some extremely intelligent folks who tend to believe that many of the conspiracy theories are, in the end, truth, at least to some degree.

There are too many coincidences, too many of the same names, too many similar tactics that have been used repeatedly over the years. These, I believe, warrant a more serious and intentional look into some of the things that are almost always classified as conspiracy theories and more often than not rejected out of hand.

I said a while ago that it appears to me that the elitists have actually started coming out into the open with their plan. I have recently found others who think the same thing. What I believe we are seeing is the plan that has been normally kept under wraps (in the shadows) from the average person, now clearly in the open.

More and more people are realizing that our government here in the United States was hijacked quite some time ago. What we have are merely puppets that do the bidding of people behind the scenes. So while those people remain hidden away, their plan has become much more obvious. They are either really brazen or very confident.

Yesterday, I spent some time on a social network discussing various aspects of what our government has obviously become, and what I noticed is that people are fed up. They are very angry, extremely frustrated, and desperately want to change things. Unfortunately, no one knows how to do that because it is abundantly clear that no one in our government really cares about the rule of law in America based on the Constitution and Bill of Rights. Just one example is Obamacare. Though well over 75% of the people of the United States did not want this monstrosity, our "leaders" voted for it anyway. More than that, there is a very serious question as to the constitutionality of Obamacare, and that is what matters most. Even if 100% of the people wanted it, that wouldn't matter, because the United States is a republic and not a democracy. That means that laws are decided on not through polls, but through the Constitution.

However, our leaders do not really care what the Constitution says, as they are obviously not interested in doing what is best for this country or society. Apparently, they have a "higher" calling.

It seems clear that these so-called leaders are only interested in moving us toward a complete socialistic lifestyle that suits them and benefits those who are secretly in power now behind the scenes. There have been many examples of this type of action from our government and we can see this in the presidencies of George H. W. Bush, Bill Clinton, George W. Bush, and now, of course, with Mr. Obama, as just recent examples. It goes back further than these men, though.

While it's a bit more difficult to find in the administration of Ronald Reagan, it is there. It's not all that tough to see when you know what you are looking for within each administration. Normally, it comes down to finding out who is involved in that administration and whether or not they have any ties to the Council on Foreign Relations or Trilateral Commission.

The names are all there. The people who have been around for what seems to be an eternity go in and out of aspects of all these administrations like so many revolving doors. You'll find them in one administration doing one thing, and then doing something else in another administration, and it doesn't even matter whether the particular administration is Democratic or Republican in nature. That alone should tell us something.

For instance, when you hear the name Zbigniew Brzezinski, you know you are hearing the name of a man who has been around well before Jimmy Carter. It is said he positioned Carter to become president of the United States. Then we see Brzezinski's name reappear with several presidents after Carter, and we begin to take notice of something. People like Brzezinski are there to ensure that the elite's program grows and continues to take shape, regardless of who is in the Oval Office. It doesn't really matter to them. All that matters is the goal and how it is achieved.

People who notice these things understand that the hijacking of the United States' government took place quite a while ago, but many are just now realizing it, and much of the information has come through the Internet. Because of that, tremendous frustration and anger has been generated and people rightly want a change.

Though this may seem defeatist, unfortunately, I believe it is too late to change anything related to our government. Others disagree with me, but my reasoning is based solely on the fact that the global powers are decades ahead of us in putting their plan in action. If that's true, why bother learning about what's going on if it's too late to change anything? Because knowledge is power. Truth frees us from the emotional tyranny of our government. It allows us to understand what is taking place in the world. We are then free from the control that the government wishes to establish over us emotionally. We recognize what they are attempting to do and can react accordingly. We are no longer at their mercy.

I honestly believe that with our latest presidential election, the global elite went way overboard in ensuring that Mr. Obama was re-elected.

In doing so, voter fraud seemed to become extremely obvious, at least to me. This has caused people to realize that our vote counts for nothing. With the onset of voting machines, it has become that much easier for the elitists to fraudulently win an election for their candidate.

The numbers that we saw coming out of various voting precincts is absolutely ridiculous and telling. The fact that we hear of percentages well over 100% in many precincts indicates that something is very clearly wrong. How can there be more votes than people who either live or are registered to vote in any precinct? Yet voting officials say they see nothing wrong with the numbers or percentages. They have chosen to ignore the obvious.

People know that the election was stolen and they are angry. At the same time, if the election was stolen, people know that voting doesn't matter and our voice is definitely not heard in Washington, DC. Obviously, things are controlled by others, and this leads us right back to the "shadow" or "invisible" government. What are the goals of this government, and if it exists, why does it exist?

Immediately after WWII, when our leaders saw that the League of Nations was not capable of doing what it was designed to do (eliminate war), the UN replaced it. It also appears that on the heels of the demise of the League of Nations and the beginning of the UN, the shadow government went fully underground but continued to work on creating a new world from the shadows. It also appears that their goals became the following:

- "To introduce a world authority called the United Nations (with associated bodies like the World Health Organization), which could evolve into a world government with powers to control the lives of everyone on the planet."

- To continue to cause conflicts across the world and to use the fear of the Soviet Union to massively increase spending on nuclear weapons and 'conventional' weapons, thus adding to the terror of nuclear war and demands for global security. To set up an American-European defense alliance (which was called the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation (sic) (NATO)) and a United Nations 'peace' keeping force, which, through the engineering of conflicts, would eventually be fused together to form the world army.
- To create three 'free trade' regions in Europe, the Americas, and Asia, which would be sold to people initially as merely economic groupings. Gradually, however, these would be evolved into centralized political unions, with one central bank and one currency. These would be stepping-stones to the introduction of the same institutions on a global scale. The European Economic Community, now the European Union, was the first of these, but the other two are now underway, also.
- To advance the control of public opinion and to research and expand the understanding of how to manipulate the human psyche, individually and collectively. Today this agenda includes the micro chipping of people and their permanent connection to a global computer.
- To create a welfare state while destroying alternatives to the economic system and, when the desired dependency had been achieved, to dismantle that state welfare support, so creating a vast underclass without help or hope.
- To make fantastic amounts of money in the course of realising (sic) all of these ambitions via the Elite-controlled companies and banks.

- To continually add to the debt burdens of people, business, and state, thus increasing the control exerted over them."²³

The image shown (below) is from the same page as the goals outlined above and it shows how the various groups - six of them - are all connected to the main group called The Round Table. Now, just because someone creates a graphic like this, does that mean it's true and authentic?

No, but again, if we begin to look deeper and note the names of individuals associated with each of these groups and then attempt to determine whether or not any of them have consistently been associated with presidential administrations (as well as leadership groups within other nations), we may begin to see a relevant pattern.

However, don't get lost in that right now. Look back over the list I've included on the previous pages. Note all the items. Take a good, serious look at them and then ask yourself, is it possible that these individual items have come or are coming to fruition?

It certainly seems clear enough that the United Nations was created as a replacement to the failed League of Nations. Looking back over the years since its inception, we see that countries have granted part of their sovereignty in various ways to the UN. In fact, the Arms Trade Treaty and the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD), as well as the UN-desired control of the Internet that our House of Representatives just recently passed a resolution to oppose,²⁴ were designed to do this very thing.

In essence, the more treaties and agreements the United States (or any nation) enters into with the UN, the more U.S. sovereignty is literally given over to the UN. Some of these treaties - on their face - seem fairly innocuous, so what's the problem with entering into a treaty with the UN? It is because of what these treaties might become, as well as the fact that simply entering into a treaty with the UN in the first place obliges the United States to obey the dictates of the UN in these matters.

In a recent conversation with my wife, she told me she had learned that a number of teacher associates of hers were very disappointed when they heard that the US was not going to be joining with the UN regarding the CRPD treaty. They believe that had our government entered into this treaty with the UN this would have forced all the nations of the world to do what we currently do in the United States regarding people with disabilities. This manner of thinking simply proves how uninformed these educators are about the way it works with the UN.

Had the U.S. signed onto the CRPD treaty, here is what would have taken place:

²⁴ <https://apps.facebook.com/thehillsocial/content/271153> (12/07/2012)

1. the U.S. would have been required to create another government department that would have overseen how this treaty is implemented in the U.S., at great expense to the taxpayer
2. the newly created department would be in charge of creating reports and filing them with the UN
3. the U.S. would have given another chunk of sovereignty to the UN

At no point, if the U.S. entered into the CRPD treaty with the UN, would the entire world have been forced to do anything! This belief is not only ridiculous, but it simply shows how naive and unlearned people are in this regard.

Signing the treaty would have simply meant that the United States agrees to abide by the directives within the treaty. In no way would it have forced any other country to do anything. The U.S. signing it would not affect what any other country does.

The sad part is that the United States already has a plethora of laws related to people with disabilities. The UN treaty does nothing to enhance these laws. The UN would simply become the body to whom the U.S. reports, thereby giving the UN greater sovereignty over the United States. In fact, every treaty the U.S. enters into with the UN has this same effect.

I've already discussed that the Arms Trade Treaty is essentially a toothless treaty that ultimately grants the UN more power to control what the United States does as far as exports and imports of weaponry. Moreover, eventually, the treaty could be amended to include items that would essentially work to eliminate the 2nd Amendment altogether.

I believe it will happen one day. Our vigilance can push back against those efforts, but ultimately, the world is going to buckle under.

Chapter 5

Out of the Shadows, Pt. 2

Previously, we learned about the specific goals of what many call the shadow or invisible government. The question for many is, how and when did this shadow government come into existence? Most say – as I alluded – that it began with the eradication of the League of Nations, when it was replaced with the United Nations. At the same time this was occurring, another organization came into being called the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR).

Anyone who takes the time to seriously study this organization will quickly come to several conclusions. First, the goals and aspirations of this council are very closely aligned to Nazism (National Socialism), and many of the names associated with the group are well-known to Americans and most of the world through various American presidents and their administrations, as well as other groups like the Trilateral Commission.

The overthrow of the Constitutional Republic known as America actually began decades ago, and in some ways, the CFR has been at the forefront. This has been accomplished by placing CFR members in high positions so they become those:

- who are members of “the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of government
- who control television, radio, and newspaper corporations
- who head the largest law firms
- who run the largest and most prestigious universities
- who direct the largest private foundations
- who direct the largest public corporations
- who direct and staff the major think tanks and University Institutes
- *who hold top commands in the military”*²⁵

So the CFR is part of the shadow or invisible government that we do not see and only discuss in terms of conspiracy theories. According to one website, “THERE ARE two governments in the United States today. One is visible. The other is invisible.

“The first is the government that citizens read about in their newspapers and children study about in their civics books. The second is the interlocking, hidden machinery that carries out the policies of the United States in the Cold War.

“This second, invisible government gathers intelligence, conducts espionage, and plans and executes secret operations all over the globe.

²⁵ http://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/sociopolitica/esp_sociopol_cfr_09.htm
(12/07/2012)

"The Invisible Government is not a formal body. It is a loose, amorphous grouping of individuals and agencies drawn from many parts of the visible government. It is not limited to the Central Intelligence Agency, although the CIA is at its heart. Nor is it confined to the nine other agencies which comprise what is known as the intelligence community:

- the National Security Council
- the Defense Intelligence Agency
- the National Security Agency
- Army Intelligence
- Navy Intelligence
- Air Force Intelligence
- the State Department's Bureau of Intelligence and Research
- the Atomic Energy Commission
- the Federal Bureau of Investigation

*"The Invisible Government includes, also, many other units and agencies, as well as individuals, that appear outwardly to be a normal part of the conventional government. It even encompasses business firms and institutions that are seemingly private."*²⁶

If it is true that our government is at most merely a front government that allows people to believe that they have a voice in said government and policies that come out of Washington, with the real power emanating from a hidden government where the individuals associated with it are neither voted into office or held to account, we must be concerned with origins. When could this entity have begun?

According to most sources, the shadow government began right around the same time that the UN came into being. In effect, just after WWII, the United States became a rising nation representing the power of the west and democracy. In this position of power, the United States had the ability to stand against the communism of the USSR.

26

http://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/sociopolitica/esp_sociopol_secretgov_5a.htm#THE%20INVISIBLE%20GOVERNMENT (12/07/2012)

Because of the existence of communism, a huge network of intelligence was created to apparently combat the spread of communism through what has been called the Cold War. Because of the existence of this intelligence network, it became much easier for our government (and hence, the shadow government behind it) to hide things from the public, all in the name of "national security."

What we do not know about this invisible government would probably knock our socks off, but it is safe to say that the cloak of invisibility has worked in their favor. It has allowed those in the shadows to do what they have needed to do to bring about what will become a total collapse of American society by overburdening America with debt, regulations, and unnecessary laws.

It is also interesting to note that National Security Agency (NSA) was created by President Truman; however, due to problems with secrecy, an outside group came into existence to actually shield the NSA from external scrutiny and interference. That group became known as the Bilderberg Group.²⁷ Named after the hotel they first met at in 1952, this group in many ways became one of the basic groups that sought to guide world affairs to a one-government solution.

Interestingly enough, numerous sources indicate that the NSA was essentially created as a watchdog group dealing with the possibility of alien invasion. Many believe this is still the case, but with the creation of the Bilderberg group, the pressure is off the NSA and people tend to focus on the Bilderbergers instead.

²⁷ http://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/sociopolitica/esp_sociopol_mj12_1.htm
(12/07/2012)

The main problem with our government seems to have been the creation and evolution of too many secret groups and organizations that exist without any accountability to the American people. We can see that groups or councils like NSA or CFR exist with their own agendas and ulterior motives. They do not exist to for the safety of the American people.

This leads us to our next question. If these secret organizations do exist and have existed for decades, what have they done to ensure that their work not only remains secret, but viable? In other words, what are they working toward? We'll attempt to deal with that as briefly as we can in our next chapter.

Chapter 6

Out of the Shadows, Pt. 3

In an ideal situation, a democratic government (or Constitutional Republic, as in the case of the USA) of any nation is there for one main purpose: to serve the electorate. The elected officials are to be concerned with the needs of their constituency as it reflects the laws of the Constitution. They are not elected to serve themselves or special interests that are able to buy votes with money or favors.

In that ideal environment, elected officials then create laws and policies that are designed for the benefit of society (based on the Constitution as the rule of law), not the banks, not corporations, not "high rollers," as it were, but for the people of society. Banks would come under the laws of the government and would also need to play by the same rules that everyone else in society plays by. Every citizen has an equal voice. Therefore, no one's vote would be weightier because of the power he or she may have attained through his or her riches. It would be equal across the board.

It is easy to see why such an ideal environment would not work for those whose lives are enveloped with and driven by greed. Greedy people know that the more money you have the more power you also have. Is it any wonder why the apostle Paul says that the love of money is the root of all evil (cf. 1 Timothy 6:10)? He does not say that money itself is the root of all evil. He clearly says that the love of money is where evil begins.

But in a world where graft and greed is unfortunately too often the norm, the ideal that I have just described does not exist. What we have instead is shown in the graphic I have created (next page). We have a society where the banking cartels sit at the very top of the pyramid and actual government and policy emanates from them.

We saw the beginnings of this in the United States with the 1896 election of William McKinley, who won with 271 electoral votes. What's so strange about that, you might ask? Nothing, except for the fact that J. P. Morgan (Jr.), Carnegie and Rockefeller had all gotten together long before the election and decided to literally buy a president. In essence, then, McKinley was "hired" by these three to protect their financial interests and became America's first official puppet president (first, as far as we know).

Whether you believe this or not, then at least acknowledge that in the late 1940s and early 1950s, shortly after the United Nations replaced the failed League of Nations, the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) was also created. Many believe that this organization became the focal point for what has come to be known as the shadow or invisible government. With the creation of the CFR, members could meet

Toward a New World Order

(Under the direction of the banking cartel elite)

Extended Family Banking Groups

Gets Certain
Politicians Elected

Government

Fulfills Wishes of Banking Heirarchy

Supports Key Politicians
Who Favor Banking Cartels

The Media

Supports Work of Government as "Democracy"

The Public (given slanted picture of "truth")

"It can thus be seen that, in truth, most governments are little more than front organizations for the elite banking cartels. They interface with the public via the media, acting to facilitate social change in a manner that maintains relative social stability, while ensuring that our culture stays in line with any course the elite wish it to pursue."

http://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/sociopolitica/sociopol_globalelite07.htm secretly and create pathways that would guarantee their success in guiding American society toward a one-world global entity.

The tragic thing is that so much of this went on right in front of society's collective noses, but most couldn't see it because it was kept so well hidden. Those who could see it were treated as though they were loons and either laughed to scorn or fully ignored. As I've mentioned before, I really think one of the things that has made the difference between then and now is the creation of the Internet and the availability of tremendous amounts of information. Obviously, the global elite needs to stop the availability of information, don't they?

So it would appear that in America, our government may well be controlled by the banking elite and is therefore little more than a front organization to ensure the goals of the banking cartels are implemented. I want to be clear here. I am not saying that every elected official is part of the process. The globalists know they do not need every politician. They only need the majority, or the strong leaders within Congress.

If you consider the fact that many of the men and women in Congress (and other parts of the government and business) get together at the Bohemian Grove annually for a myriad of events, it gives one reason to pause and consider. For more on the events at Bohemian Grove, view the information at the footnote below.²⁸ You have to ask yourself: if many Democrats and Republicans treat each other as hated enemies in public, how can they be what appears to be best of buds at the Bohemian Grove? Is their public display nothing more than a created visage for public consumption?

If the banking cartels are at the top, with the government underneath, then what is the role of the media? The media - as seen in the chart - essentially works for the elite, to create the illusion that whatever the government does is done on behalf of the American people and is the “democratic” process in action.

²⁸ <http://www.infowars.com/bg1.html>

When I was growing up, my father religiously watched Walter Cronkite. In those days, the news actually appeared to be real news, from what I could tell then. Moreover, newscasters like Cronkite and others rarely allowed their emotions to get in the way of reporting the news. On several occasions – the assassination of JFK, for instance – their emotions did bubble over; however, for the most part news was simply presented without the emotional overtones that exist today as routine. I've often wondered why that is the case.

It seems to me that the only real answer is that the news we are given is not really news at all. We are provided sound bites, and reporters must provide those sound bites with emotion to help sell them. People will then absorb the information on a subliminal level. Hitler said that to repeat some lie often enough will make it become truth to most people (my paraphrase).

We are well aware of the media's propensity to accuse a person of racism when it comes disagreeing with or criticizing Mr. Obama or his policies. This is an automatic response by many within the media. Why? It is because they are selling a point that must impact society. The point (whether true or not) is that anything a “black” man does as president is automatically seen by many as racist simply because he is “black.” This point needs to be made repeatedly.

Why do you think Mr. Obama was elected in the first place, because he was more qualified than anyone else? If anything, he is less qualified than most that were running against him. Certainly, Hillary Clinton was far more qualified, and as a woman, she would have won the election with a slam dunk. However, the global elite needed someone like Mr. Obama because it was felt that a person of color and someone who had an Islamic background would be far better suited to helping the global elite advance their agenda. On my blog, I have discussed how the elite uses the Muslim Brotherhood the same way Hitler did.

This same thing is true about the Benghazi incident and Ambassador Susan Rice. The news reported that several Democrat women senators alleged that those who were critical of Rice and her involvement in what turned out to be inaccurate information regarding Benghazi are both racist and sexist. It does not matter if they believe it. Rice is a woman of color, and because of that it is implied that neither John McCain nor Lindsay Graham's concerns are valid. What people learned from the media is that the ulterior motive here was based on sexism and racism. That's what people will zero in on.

Aside from being unfair (and probably untrue), it amounts to misdirection. This is something that the global elite have elevated to a very high standard. Anytime they need to have their way, the globalists (through the government front and the lap-dog media) will do whatever is necessary to keep people from thinking about the real issues that lead to actual truth. They will do whatever is necessary to help people focus on ancillary issues as a means of misdirection. This is especially true when the media plays the race card as often as they do. It is used as a cover to keep people from searching for the truth.

An excellent example of misdirection is seen in the movie Wag the Dog starring Robert DiNiro and Dustin Hoffman. If you have not seen this movie, I strongly encourage you to do so. I truly believe the elite has given us their plan through many movies, laughing all the while because of our inability to connect the dots or because we cannot do anything about it.

Ultimately, it appears our society is governed by an oligarchy, which is the shadow government that really makes the decisions and does so for the benefit of those who have ultimate power behind the scenes. Again, ask yourself, if three men in 1896 - J. P. Morgan (Jr.), Rockefeller, and Carnegie - were literally able to buy a president instead of allowing the natural process of voting to run its course, how much easier is it for these same power groups today - relatives of the original Morgan, Rockefeller, Carnegie and a few others - to continue the practice in order to further benefit their own empires?

As just one example, any idea how many millions of dollars J. P. Morgan (the company) makes off of producing the EBT cards for Welfare recipients? The more people on Welfare, the more money they make. Under Mr. Obama, Welfare is up, up, and up! Does J. P. Morgan benefit from having Mr. Obama as president?

With this last election, it should be clear to anyone who truly has the capacity to think that voter fraud won the day, or at least played a strong role. You can disagree with me if you want, but I've written several articles on my blog that included links to True the Vote,²⁹ an organization that keeps track of alleged incidents of voter fraud and the possibility of it happening.

Facts are facts, and to me, it clearly seems that the global elite was so concerned about Mr. Obama losing that they actually wound up overplaying their hand and showing the world - those who can see - that voter fraud is rampantly part of the process. I believe this has been the case for decades, but we are just now seeing it because there were so many safeguards in place. Looking back, I think it definitely existed in the 2008 election as well.

Since the creation of the Council on Foreign Relations and the UN (in the early 1950s), the global elite has had their fingers firmly ensconced in the shadow government that actually runs things behind the scenes. Much of it - until now - has been kept from the public view, and that was very easy to do considering the lack of an Internet. But we are bound to lose the freedom of the Internet eventually. Yes, it costs to go on the Internet, but I'm not talking about that. I'm talking about having the ability to go where you want to go on the 'Net and also have the ability to exercise your right of freedom of speech.

²⁹ <http://www.truethethevote.org/>

Because of the Internet, the elite have had to fight harder to gain and keep control. They know a large percentage of our society does not buy the lie that people who disagree with Mr. Obama are racists. They know that. This is why so many talking heads are visibly angry: because they believe that anger validates their message. It is visceral and living. It comes from the gut and people buy that type of emotion because it smacks of realism to them.

This is what the "news" does, and it does not matter which news source it is, either. All of them, to one degree or another, are beholden to someone and present news at his or her behest.

It was recently reported that the UN has adopted "confidential recommendations proposed by China that will help network providers target BitTorrent uploaders, detect trading of copyrighted MP3 files and, critics say, accelerate internet censorship in repressive nations."³⁰ We can be assured that from here, other "safeguards" will be implemented so that eventually, the ability to speak freely on the 'Net will be severely curtailed. It is interesting that this is being proposed by China, which is allegedly one of the biggest cheats going when it comes to copyright infringement.

So what should all of this information I'm presenting to you (and I'm not done yet) cause you to do or think? Initially, if you're just starting to think about these things, it will cause anger and frustration (or, quite possibly, disbelief). You will want to do something, anything to change the direction of society. Well, before you go running off half-cocked and filled with anger, think about the fact that you are going up against the banking cartels, people who can chew you up and spit you out before you even realize what has happened. They are above the law, so please remember that.

³⁰ <http://au.news.yahoo.com/technology/news/article/-/15568488/un-summit-votes-to-support-internet-eavesdropping/> (12/10/2012)

Realize that if what I'm saying is true, you must understand that this has been in the works since the early 1950s at the very least. Chances are good that it's been going on longer than that in this country. In other words, the elite have a major leg up on all of us and they are constantly fine-tuning the system, making it better (for them) as time has progressed. Conservatives and patriots are on the defensive.

Do you have enough money (and therefore, power) to take on the elite? Neither do I. So what do we do? The only thing we really can do is resist. I am not talking about getting involved in things that are illegal (that's what the elite does and they have enough money and power to be protected from the laws that seem to only affect us). I'm talking about resisting the evil that has permeated our government, and we do this through every legal channel available to us.

For example, when they come for your guns, simply refuse to turn them over, based on the 2nd Amendment of the U.S. Constitution. What if Martial Law is in effect? Continue to refer to the Constitution. Yep, they may take you to jail, but do you really think they are going to be able to put all of us in jail?

There are things we can do - through legal resistance - that will change the way society affects us. It may not change society, but it will change us. Knowledge is freedom, and the more we know about how the global elite works, the less chance we will fall in behind them. We can get out of the way and start living our lives based on what we know to be true.

Now, let me insert a bit of religious thought here. Feel free to ignore this part if religion does not suit you or you find that my opinion and ideas do not square with yours. I am not trying to force my opinion on you. I am simply sharing my opinion based on my understanding of Scripture. However, please do not lose sight of the fact that as far as the elite are concerned, they own you. You – and I – are their serfs. We can change that by what we learn.

I believe in the veracity of the Bible, and anyone who has been reading my books and articles long enough knows this. I believe the Bible is true and it reveals to us what the future is going to be like, and the future is here. Yes, in the end, God wins. That's a given, but God has given us plenty of information about what society will become before He actually and experientially wins the day in this realm.

We know that the world is going to become far more corrupt. This should be obvious even to those who are not religious. By the time the Antichrist gets here, it will be hell on earth in many ways.

Paul talks about this to his protégé, Timothy. In part, he says, "For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, revilers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy..." (2 Timothy 3:2). Read that section of Scripture. We are there now and that evil is growing over the face of the earth, which is another reason I believe the elitists have become so emboldened and seemingly unconcerned about whether we know what they're doing or not. They'll simply continue to play the same game whether we call them on it or not.

Life is going to become far worse. If you are free - because of what you have learned about the elite - you are free to no longer play their game. This is what it comes down to today. You are either a slave to the elite unknowingly, or you are free from them (as much as you can be with them still in control of much of society) to live your life with the knowledge that you are "awake" to their schemes. In some ways, it is similar to the theme of The Matrix.

If you understand what is happening, it eliminates much of the fear. As a Christian, I also know that my God directs my life as well as the events of this world. It is He whom I choose to worship and follow. I do not need to go through this life in fear because as His child, there is really nothing to fear except eternity without Him.

There is a great deal of frustration and anger in society today because of what is becoming more clearly understood as the elite's playbook. It has been guiding major aspects of global society. What can we do?

Look, it's their ballgame. They are pushing this world to become a one-world government. The Bible says that this will happen. That is not even a question, and frankly, the only way you can miss that is by spiritualizing or allegorizing Scripture. The world will become one, just as it tried to do under Nimrod (cf. Genesis 11). God interrupted Nimrod's plans then (which were ultimately Satan's plans), but God appears to be allowing these same plans to come to fruition now with different human players.

If the world is going to become one – and it appears as though it is most definitely on its way to becoming that – then what can we do to stop it? Absolutely nothing. Sorry if that sounds defeatist, but it may well simply be the fact of the situation. Because that appears to be the case, it would seem that the most we can do is not play along.

Knowledge is power and it provides freedom. We do not have to play the elite's game. We can distance ourselves from it. We can be wise as serpents and gentle as doves in the knowledge that what they are setting up will not last. God is the Victor. He will be glorified.

Chapter 7

Who is Kryon?

When searching the Internet looking for things spiritual, it is not long before you find yourself on pages that deal with alleged spiritual beings such as:

- Archangel Michael
- Raphael
- Gabriel
- Seth
- Kryon
- and others

Many within Christendom are familiar with the names Michael the Archangel and Gabriel because of biblical references. What about the others, Seth and Kryon? Ask nearly any New Ager and they'll tell you about those two beings. The same New Agers will give you their opinions about Michael and Gabriel too, though their opinions will not necessarily match the biblical records.

Rev. Daniel Neusom is one person who claims to channel Archangel Michael, as he refers to him. In the Bible, Michael the Archangel does not speak much at all. In fact, about the only time you'll read where Michael says anything is when Jude quotes something he says to Satan during the dispute over Moses' body.

However, apparently Michael has a lot to say through people like Neusom. In one video on the 'Net, Michael allegedly speaks about the fact that God wants us to be free and fulfilled...on the earth. He says that repeatedly in various ways and then finally gets to the heart of his message, which is that God is LOVE...only. According to Michael, God is not judgmental, not harsh, does nothing unloving at all, and is certainly not concerned about justice or holiness. God is love...and that's it. Michael describes God as someone who does not withhold, does not chastise, and does not harm.

Frankly, it is not difficult at all to see why people would eat this up. By accepting this viewpoint, one is literally held captive by Michael's understanding of love. After all, why would Archangel Michael lie to anyone here on earth? Through Rev. Neusom, Michael encourages us to get rid of the ancient religion, but not all of it. He wants us to keep the part about "God is love" and get rid of the rest.

So who is Archangel Michael? Well, if you ask the people who tune into these videos and buy the books, he is the very Michael that the Bible speaks of, who is here on earth to bring hope to the masses. Is there another option? Of course there is, and for the Christian, it is not difficult to see behind the veneer and understand that this Michael is simply some demon disguised as Michael in order to spread the lies and agenda of his boss, Satan.

I know what you're thinking if you're not an authentic Christian. You're likely thinking that simply saying demons are behind something like this is just too easy and too typical of what a Christian would say. Even so, that reason does not necessarily negate the possibility of it being a fact.

What I find fascinating about all of these beings who channel their message through some hapless human being (who believes they have stumbled onto some secret door to a higher plane) is that their messages are generally the same. They are all about love, how the human beings of this planet are imprisoned by their own bodies, and how their souls yearn to be free. Fortunately for us, they are here to tell us that as well as attempt to show us how to walk through that door, which leads to the higher plane.

Ultimately, when Seth states "reality is what you make it" (or something similar), or Michael tells us that God is love and only love, or some other entity intones that we must learn to put our prejudices born of ancient religious thought behind us, we are ultimately being force-fed the doctrines of demons.

People argue about the veracity of the Bible all the time. Yet many of these same people have little to no difficulty hearing and accepting as true the gobbledygook that comes out of the mouth of some human being like Jane Roberts, Ruth Montgomery, or the aforementioned Rev. Neusom. This is tragic if you stop to consider the fact that none of these beings bother to take the time to prove anything. They simply ramble on and on about the plausibility of our inner soul searching for the door to that eternal plane, which unfortunately, due to the darkness of our own thinking, keeps us bound to the chains of our own corrupt desires, blah, blah, blah. Sound familiar?

However, every once in a while, some entity comes along who has more to talk about than simply the subject of love. After all, that gets old quickly if you stop to think about it, except for those individuals who are so softhearted that they find it very appealing to embrace that emotional side on a moment-by-moment basis.

So out of the mix comes someone like Kryon. Kryon is described by some as God, who is separate from the earth plane, or from Mother Earth. Others describe Kryon as a higher intelligence, here to teach humanity the way of love and peace, not just love.

I have to say that this Kryon tends to go out on a limb when speaking of peace. By that I mean that he is willing to speak in more specifics than many of the other entities who simply speak of freedom, fulfillment, and love. Kryon has – through Lee Carroll – spoken to members of the United Nations in the past. In fact, since 1995, “Kryon was invited to come to New York and channel for the Society of Enlightenment and Transformation ... S.E.A.T, ... a member of the United Nations Staff Recreation Council.”³¹

That’s an interesting thing, when you stop to consider it. Here is a man, who is said to be the channel for Kryon to speak to humanity. He has been invited to the UN to give lectures and lead in prayer.

I won’t bore you with all the vernacular and verbiage (it’s incredible how some of these entities can ramble on and on! You would think higher intelligence would mean an economy of speech, but...nope), but I did find a very interesting tidbit about the Middle East situation, which I thought I'd quote here. You can decide what you think about it.

³¹ http://kryon.com/k_un.html (12/07/2012)

Now remember, demons lie. That is their native language; however, this does not mean that everything they say is a lie. It means that they easily mix truth with lies so that it becomes difficult for the uninitiated to determine when they are lying and when they are telling the truth.

I have found that quite often, these demons actually relay some truth, but wrap it in a package of lies. I've discussed this in one of my previous books and it is fascinating to me to see how much truth they mix with their lies. People who are already deceived have no problem at all swallowing everything they say in complete faith.

In 2009, when Kryon shared his wisdom with the folks at the UN, he spoke of the Middle East problem and what he believed might very well be the solution. Oh, that's another thing they do. They will also caution their listeners about taking their words and statements as facts. While they are speaking them, the information is presented as facts, but the oneness to determine truthfulness always rests with human beings. We make or break the deal, and by presenting it this way, they are never seen as liars. If it doesn't come to pass, oh well, it's because there weren't enough humans who believed it or something else that absolves these beings of any real responsibility.

Anyway, check out part of Kryon's message in 2009 as he spoke through Lee Carroll and note how often words like "may" or "might" are used:

"It brings me now to the prophecy I've been giving for some time. For it remains strong [the potentials have not changed]. One of the most unusual things that you ever, ever could imagine may happen, and it involves Iran. I will say it again to you as I've said three other times to three other groups. Now I will state it in these halls of the United Nations. Iran may hold the key to the most stable, most profitable, most influential nation in the Middle East. And if this potential is fulfilled, it will be the young people of Iran who will create 'The Great Iranian Revolution'."³²

Are you starting to see something? Here's more:

"The last thing you're going to see or imagine you would ever see has a strong potential to happen. The potentials are that Iran will actually invest in the peace of Jerusalem and that their influences and their funding will begin to have great influence for a solution in Israel – not just a solution between Israel and those called the Palestinians, but a greater one that creates solutions with the Islamic states around them." (emphasis added)

Huh? What? Did Kryon just say that there is a great possibility that Iran itself will become the major promoter of peace in the Middle East? These statements were made back in November of 2009, which, of course, was not that long ago. Last November, Ahmadinejad was every bit the anti-Semite that he is now. Yet Kryon is telling these people at the UN that over time, a new generation of Iranians will rise up and approach the entire problem of the Middle East in a completely different manner.

Kryon has even more to tell us. "You will see the countries around Iran join with Iran, even former enemies. Borders will be relaxed. Eventually, it will affect Pakistan and Afghanistan, who won't want to be left out of the new Middle Eastern union. India will also be involved in a way that embraces Pakistan in trade like never before. Those who feature old energy thinking will have no place to hide, for peace will be the way of it. A brand new idea will emerge that says, 'If we can stop the *traditions of hate now, and teach our children to hope, eventually there will a group of nations who will only remember what the tensions used to be, from reading their history books.' It's a quantum generation that is coming, one who can think ahead, way past their own lives... past their parents' teaching of old hatred and old ways. This, indeed, is part of the new rift that will develop between parent and child for the next 50 years in the Middle East."*³³

³² http://kryon.com/k_un.html (12/07/2012)

He also told the people listening that *"This is what we see and it is within the lifetime of many here. It may go slower, depending on what you do. It may go faster, depending on what you do."*³⁴ No prophecy can be given by these entities without the general disclaimer at the end, which absolves them of any responsibility.

Almighty God – Everlasting Father – Jesus Christ, King of Kings – on the other hand, has specific times and dates and none of His prophecies are dependent upon humanity at all. His will and purposes come to fruition at the EXACT moment He foreordained that they would.

Can we bank on what Kryon tells us? No, we cannot. However, I believe that within all of these statements, there is some truth. They see the truth and use it for their own agenda. The young woman in Acts who became the carnival barker for Paul and his companions spoke the truth. What the demon said through the woman was absolutely true: "These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation" (Acts 16:17b). The problem, though, was that Paul did not like the idea that a servant of Satan was actually barking out that truth as an advertisement.

So between this and numerous other statements in the New Testament, we know that demons tell the truth. Sometimes, it's what they do not say that makes them a liar because of the impression their words give.

³³ http://kryon.com/k_un.html (12/07/2012)

³⁴ Ibid

So here is Kryon revealing what he says may come to pass in the Middle East. Ultimately, he states that it will be the people in the Middle East who solve the problem of the Middle East! Interesting, isn't it? It sounds very heartwarming and inviting.

Those listening had no clue that this may, in fact, be the absolute truth. However, Kryon neglected to go into the many details related to that peace and the fact that any brokerage of peace in the Middle East will actually be handled and overseen by Antichrist. Why bother with the details like these?

What I actually find even more fascinating than anything Kryon said is the fact that he has actually spoken to groups within the UN, and not just once, but seven times! How does that happen? It happens in a world where people want to believe that they are their own gods, and that the all-powerful, all-knowing God of the Bible does not really exist at all. That's how it happens. People want answers, but they don't want them from God Almighty.

We will undoubtedly hear much more from entities like Kryon and Archangel Michael as well as others as time moves onward. In fact, we can expect channeling to become much more readily accepted and available until it likely becomes a type of normative way of living. It will in essence become like another news source, from the other worlds to our world.

I am not saying that we should stop what we're doing and start paying attention to the messages of these entities that channel their speeches through human beings. What I am saying is that we should recognize the fact that these entities are doing that, and with greater frequency. Moreover, there are more and more people tuning into their messages, wholeheartedly believing and embracing them.

This is where the world is heading, and the difficulty is in keeping this out of the church. Many churches – via the philosophies of the Emergent or Postmodern Church – have been overtaken by it in some form or another.

Christians need to be vigilant and, of course, not be taken in by these seducing spirits. We must not only not be taken in by them, but we must do all that we can to help others understand that the messages these beings are speaking may have some truth. However, the source of those messages has absolutely no interest in our welfare. These beings only wish to deceive in order to overcome.

We must warn, whether they listen or not.

Chapter 8

Are We Really Getting It?

It is not difficult to see the increasing venality of this world. The fact that so many of us see what appears to be absolute corruption in our government is not happy news either. So what do we do with that information or knowledge? Do we throw up our hands in despair and say that, for the most part, it's essentially over?

I firmly believe that it is too late to change our government because of the grip that not only the global elite, but ultimately the spiritual forces that motivate them, have on the government of the United States. I've written about that elsewhere and if you've read my books or articles on my blog with any consistency, that won't come as a surprise to you.

I have stated that though we cannot necessarily do anything about the corruption of our government, we can gain release from being in fear of our government. The more we know, the freer we become, and that is a great feeling.

However, the question then becomes, what do we do with our freedom from the emotional tyranny that our government is creating throughout American society? Do we "go off the grid"? Do we build a bunker and supply it with food, water, and other supplies? Do we pull a Blast from the Past, a movie in which Christopher Walken's character locks himself, his wife, and their son into their fortified home that literally becomes an impregnable fallout shelter because of some wrongly perceived nuclear threat?

The answer is obviously no, that's not what we do. God does not want or expect us to hide from society. If that was the case, the Rapture would have already taken place, but it hasn't happened yet. Certainly, taking precautions like filling a pantry or storehouse with extra food, water, and other supplies can make it easier for the difficult times ahead. That is a wise thing to do. It never hurts to be prepared as much as possible.

By the same token, I hear a lot of people talking about the fact that God is beginning to judge the nations. Moreover, I read from others that Damascus is about to be turned into dust. I myself have written about the possibility of the Gog/Magog War of Ezekiel 38-39 happening in the not-too-distant-future.

If it is true that we are seeing some of end times specific prophecies unfold - or get ready to - then it stands to reason that things look as though they are gearing up for the final showdown, something we call the Tribulation. It is plainly on its way.

During that time, God will roll up His sleeves and go mano-a-mano with the nation of Israel. He will use various nations and ultimately the Antichrist himself to purge all the rebels from Israel. In doing so, God will take for Himself a final Remnant, a Remnant that will go into the Millennial Kingdom Jesus creates when He returns. There, these Jews will at last inherit all of the Land that God originally promised to them through Abram in Genesis 12.

God will also begin His judgment on the nations during this same time period, but it won't be until the end of the Tribulation - after our Lord Jesus returns - that Jesus will finally judge each and every nation in what is known as the Parable of the Sheep and the Goats (cf. Matthew 25:31-46). However, what is most fascinating to me during the entire time leading up to and including the Tribulation period is the fact that multitudes of people will come to know Jesus as Lord and Savior! This is not only an amazing fact, but it is one that brings honor, blessing, and glory to God! This is the reality of God's judgment on the world that often promotes persecution of His saints because of the terrible evil in society.

As the world sees the Christians and how they are faring under the weight of severe problems in society, the people of the world will mock, ridicule, and laugh. However, many of them will see a reality in authentic Christians that causes them to wonder. That wonder causes them to ask questions. Those questions will often lead them to salvation.

I believe with all my heart that more people are saved during difficult times of trouble and persecution than during times of peace. This is not something the global elite can wrap their brains around if they even consider it. They use wars and rumors of wars to facilitate their goals, but in doing so, what they fail to see is that the potential of wars and societal upheaval often bring people to their knees and they gain from God what becomes eternally theirs: salvation.

To me, it is a two-pronged problem. During the Tribulation, the terror will be tremendous. God will pour out His wrath on this world as I believe He is gearing up to do now. His goal, of course, is to turn the people - including the rulers - to Him in repentance so that they can have what, a restored country or nation? A greater ability to rule? Peace and safety? Removal of all fear?

No, God's primary reason for sending His judgment in the form of terrible times where evil seems to reign supreme and unchecked is so that people will come to the point of kneeling before Him in true worship. They will only do this when they see their need for His salvation.

In Revelation 6, beginning with verse 12, we read about what is called the Sixth Seal. When the Sixth Seal was opened, we learn that "there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became like blood; ¹³ and the stars of the sky fell to the earth, as a fig tree casts its unripe figs when shaken by a great wind. ¹⁴ The sky was split apart like a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places."

To sum up, here is what occurred when the Sixth Seal opens up and this portion of God's wrath is poured out onto the earth.

- a great earthquake
- the sun becomes black
- the moon becomes like blood
- stars fall from the sky
- the sky literally opens up
- every mountain and island are moved

Do you think that would be scary? Do you think people would notice? Yet here is how the world reacts to these events. "Then the kings of the earth and the great men and the commanders and the rich and the strong and every slave and free man hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains; ¹⁶ and they said to the mountains and to the rocks, 'Fall on us and hide us from the presence of Him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb; ¹⁷ for the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to stand?'"

It's safe to say that the people will be completely shocked when these events occur. In fact, they not only try to hide themselves in caves, but they want the rocks to close them in. It's also very clear that they understand that it is God Himself who is causing these things to happen. They even admit that it is God's wrath and they know that they will not be able to stand in His presence, so it's best just to be completely out of sight, as if anyone can truly hide from God.

Just prior to the Sixth Seal being opened, the same chapter of Revelation tells us of the Fifth Seal, its contents and the world's reaction. "When the Lamb broke the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God, and because of the testimony which they had maintained; ¹⁰ and they cried out with a loud voice, saying, 'How long, O Lord, holy and true, will You refrain from judging and avenging our blood on those who dwell on the earth?' ¹¹ And there was given to each of them a white robe; and they were told that they should rest for a little while longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brethren who were to be killed even as they had been, would be completed also."

Look at the above text closely. The Fifth Seal creates a situation on earth where an untold number of individuals will be martyred because of their faith in God and because they have His salvation. Notice also that these martyrs turn to God and basically ask Him how much longer they will need to wait before He fully judges and avenges their blood.

Notice God's answer. He tells them to be patient for a while longer until the full number of their brothers/sisters is completed: those who were yet to be killed. In other words, there were more martyrs to come and these martyrs needed to wait until that point.

If we jump ahead to the next chapter of Revelation - chapter 7 - we learn that John the apostle sees such a great multitude of believers coming out of the Tribulation that he indicates that it was impossible to put a number to them. "After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could count, from every nation and all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, and palm branches were in their hands..." (Revelation 7:9).

When I read Revelation and other portions of the Scriptures that deal with the Tribulation and the time just prior to the physical return of Jesus, it is clear that God is concerned about changing the hearts of people. He is not seemingly concerned about nations regarding salvation. Why? Nations - apart from Israel - cannot be saved. Israel is the only nation that God sees as a whole, or a unit.

I am well aware that there are people who believe the founders of the United States entered into some type of covenant with God and that is why He blessed us. I believe rather that God blessed this nation simply and solely because much of our government, including most of our laws, is based on biblical principles.

Yes, our nation has consistently moved itself away from being tethered to those principles, and that began happening not long after we were founded. Go back through our history and learn when outside forces began to chip away at the things America stood for and it won't be long before you realize that over the decades since this nation's birth, little by little, this group there, that person over there, that other group there, throughout the years has done something that has made another part of the biblical principles upon which this nation was originally based obsolete.

It has not been one person that has done all of this, and it hasn't even been one group that has brought these things about. Changes have been caused by many people and many groups moving, pushing, and working to pull this nation away from observing God's principles.

But people say that if the Church would repent and take her position in the world more seriously, these things would not be. That makes no sense to me because the true church has always been here and it has always worked to stand against evil. Jesus said the gates of hell would not prevail against His Church. God has simply allowed evil to prevail in many cases because of where this world needs to get to in order for Him to be able to bring His full judgment to bear on this nation and on the world.

If Mr. Obama stood up right now and literally found Jesus and if he said he had repented of his sin and wanted to only do those things that brought glory to God in Christ Jesus from that moment on, what do you think would happen? Do you honestly believe that the people (or even the majority of them) would follow suit and do as he did? I think – because evil is so prevalent in our society – that Mr. Obama would be summarily dismissed as president and another puppet leader would replace him, taking over where he left off.

The Bible tells us that this nation – as all nations – is moving toward that time when God will unleash His wrath in the form of judgment throughout the entire earth. But God be praised, what this will do is bring numbers into His Kingdom that are so large that no person will be able to count them, as John says. This is something that we should be praising God for because He said it and therefore we know He will do it.

So what should Christians be doing now? How should we be living in light of what the Bible tells us is going to happen? We should be living as a true light to a dark world.

I saw something on a friend's wall on a social network that was truly moving. The woman – Isik Ablā - was a Muslim and had become a Christian. She recalls the time when a man she describes as a fanatic Muslim wrote her. She gave me permission to include his letter to her in this book.

"Until the last drop of my blood and the last breath in me, I will find you and kill you. This is my life purpose" he said. He sent his picture along with his message. In his picture he was holding 2 machine guns and wearing a commando outfit. He had a green bandana on his forehead and a writing 'For Allah'.

"With a heavy heart, I went into my closet and I wept. I wept not because I feared my life. I already gave it up for Christ Jesus when I started going in front of the TV cameras. I wept because of the intense hatred in a man's heart hurt me.

"I talked to the Lord, 'Lord, what would you do? How would you answer?' Jesus said to me, 'Remember, I died for this fanatic Muslim man too' and He gave me the answer.

"I responded to the man. 'You wrote me until your last drop of blood and last breath you will find me and kill me. I tell you until the last drop in my blood and last breath I will love you. Because my Lord Jesus says: Love your enemies.'

"After two weeks, he wrote me back, 'I couldn't believe what you wrote me. How can you love someone like me. How can Your God love me? Tell me your story.' After several weeks of correspondences he surrendered his life to Jesus."

What a wonderful testimony that ultimately brought salvation to a Muslim who initially hated her and vowed to kill her. Christian, we are entering into a time when we are going to have many more chances to evangelize the world because they will seek out those of us who do not fear what is in the world. They will want what we have. They will want to know what it is that gives us peace. They will ask why we do not fear Islam, the global elite, or death itself?

We will answer them that it is because we have something more powerful, more beneficial, and eternal that fully outweighs the brevity of this life or even the pain of physical death. We have salvation that comes from the Author of life, Jesus Christ, through His life, death, and His resurrection.

If that has not and does not make a difference in your life, then may I respectfully say that you are doing something wrong. Either you truly do not have authentic salvation or you have allowed the cares and worries of this world to become your focal point for your life and they have squelched what should be the evidence of our very life in Christ.

Give yourself to God. Learn to depend upon Him. Cast your cares upon Him because He cares for you (cf. 1 Peter 5:7).

Things are going to get terribly bad in the world. How are you going to respond to that level of evil? You can waste a good deal of time and energy trying to change a government that is likely too powerful for you to change or you can simply walk through the remaining days of your life knowing that you have a far higher calling, and that calling has to do with getting the message of salvation out there to everyone who is still breathing.

Tell me, which scenario do you believe will honor God more?

Chapter 9

Sorting It Out

When it comes to all the information out there that has anything to do with the UN, the global powers that seem to control everything, and the spiritual forces behind them, how does one sort through it all to make sense of it? How can we seek to catalog it for our own learning and benefit?

I believe the only way to do it is by thoroughly researching your subject as much as possible – reading everything available (and that includes the Bible, by the way). After a while, you will begin to see patterns and the same type of information repeated by many people. Eventually, others will add information that seems reasonable. You will also find information that delves into what I consider to be very questionable areas like aliens. Don't get me wrong: I believe that there are beings who have been labeled aliens and who even say they are aliens from other galaxies, but I firmly believe they are demonic in origin, not space aliens. They are demons.

I have written several books about the subject of aliens³⁵ and frankly, the people who tend to believe everything these "aliens" have told us simply appear to be too naïve for me. The problem has to do with the fact that there is precious little proof of anything. It's simply their word on the subject. To me, the subject of "aliens" is a big misdirect: something even the global elite has bought into, sadly enough.

This is in direct contradistinction to the fact that when we study things like the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) or the Trilateral Commission, we see a picture that begins to come into focus. Since there is often a repeating of the same names from one council or committee to the next, we are then able to verify events that have occurred in history, and it begins to broaden our understanding. This cannot be said about Alienology (though there is repetition there as well). Demons are going to lie, but it is likely that they would get together to create a story with common threads that sounds plausible to human beings who are predisposed to believe in space aliens in the first place.

I have talked with many people who – without question – believe in the veracity of these aliens, or what some call ascended masters. They do not even question their identity, nor do they doubt their integrity. When I point out that these beings have offered absolutely nothing as proof of anything, including their identity, it presents no problem for these folks because they want so desperately to believe what they have personally been told by these beings. It is a great ego boost to believe that some alien (or ascended master) somewhere has chosen those specific people to share their words of wisdom. That is a very powerful feeling. Who would naturally turn that away?

³⁵ See Demons in Disguise and Nephilim Nightmare by the author

People who believe the testimony of aliens appear to have cast logic aside. But when it comes to judging the truthfulness of the global elite and their agenda, it is not that difficult to learn the truth by comparing written documentation concerning actual historical events. You will learn who to trust and who cannot be trusted based on a strong tendency by some to sensationalize things beyond the ability to logically believe.

It is also very easy to get hung up on one particular issue or another instead of stepping back to take in as much of the big picture as possible. This is another way the elite works among us, by dividing and conquering.

For instance, if people fail to see that a global elite of some type is likely using its power to move society in the direction it wants it to move, they will also not be able to see many of the things that the global elite is believed to be part of throughout society. These people, who cannot see or deny the reality of the elite, then often become simply issue-oriented because that seems most logical to them.

I talked to one guy who thought that dealing with the issues of whether or not Mr. Obama was actually born in the United States or whether there is an actual push to eliminate guns in society is a waste of time. It was not because he didn't believe those issues were relevant. It was because he did not believe there was any reality worth considering related to these issues. He didn't think they were true or in place.

For him, there was no question as to the legitimacy of Mr. Obama's eligibility. Though a gun enthusiast, he also did not necessarily believe that the Left would ever have enough power to take guns away from all people (excluding criminals) in society.

He believed he dealt only in realities. I submit that he was dealing with realities for the moment, but since he was not willing to consider the possibility that our government in truth wanted to remove guns from society, he was ignoring the chance that this could occur at some point in the future. In essence, then, he did not believe that a group of very powerful people who controlled much of the world's wealth and held the debt of major countries had the ability to make these types of things happen. It simply didn't exist, as far as he was concerned, because it veered off into the area of conspiracy, an area he avidly avoided. If the global elite does exist, it has snared people like this because of what they refuse to even consider.

The other extreme is for people to focus too much on one issue, like the birth certificate issue of Mr. Obama. Some folks spend a good amount of their time trying to prove that Mr. Obama has not been properly vetted. Because of this, they believe he is very possibly an illegal president. They believe something is desperately wrong but they cannot prove it, yet they continue doing whatever they can to try to unmask what they believe is the hidden truth related to Mr. Obama.

The problem with the person just described is that the global elite very much wants people to focus on these singular issues like the birth certificate of Mr. Obama. It wants single-issue people who spend their time so focused on one small branch that they never come to realize that the tree the branch is connected to is part of a huge forest that is all interconnected.

People will not be able to prove whether or not Mr. Obama is an illegal president until it really doesn't matter anymore. If he is an illegal president and a global elite does exist, there is absolutely no way that the truth of this situation will be exposed. It simply will not happen.

What the global elite wants is for people to go off on wild goose chases trying to do everything they can to bring the truth out while looking like morons in the process. When push comes to shove, I have to wonder how many people in America would truly care about this one issue anyway. I think the majority would not care at all because they do not care about the Constitution. Those with scruples and who understand the rule of law for this country do care, and so their quest continues.

So, on one end of the spectrum we have people who never allow themselves to even consider the possibility that conspiracy theories have merit. On the other end of the spectrum are those people who believe in conspiracies, but are so focused on individual strands that they never see the whole. Both examples play into the hands of the global elite.

It is only when people move back and begin to see the entire landscape as a whole that they are able to see the larger picture, the picture that the global elite does not want anyone to see. I believe this is very important to understand.

If our government here in the USA is as corrupt as many believe it to be, then it is not merely corrupt in one area. It is corrupt across the board and made that way over generations by many people, all connected to the global elite and its agents.

Recently, I wrote to my Congressman here in my state. I noted my concerns about Benghazi. He was kind enough to reply. Unfortunately, he either does not see the picture, or he is simply being politically correct in how he responds to me. Possibly both.

I'll keep his name out of it, but for the record, here is my response to his letter.

"Thank you for writing me about this situation and what you are attempting to do - with others - to help bring justice to bear on the situation regarding Benghazi.

"Part of the problem appears to be the fact that no one is willing to take on Mr. Obama and his alleged illegalities directly. He appears to be 'fireproof' and because of that, he gets to do what he wants to do.

"Your comment – 'The Administration continues to avoid questions from Congress and complicate our inquiry in the matter' - leads me to ask, How does Mr. Obama continue to get away with this? Richard Nixon was IMPEACHED for FAR less! Even Bill Clinton was impeached but managed to remain in office. PEOPLE DIED in Benghazi and no one seems to care. John McCain - forgive me - is all talk. Susan Rice has no business being an ambassador much less the potential candidate for Hillary Clinton's job (which will probably go to John – 'Hey, I'm a liberal and I hate America' Kerry).

"Gen. Petraeus has an affair and he is forced out? I realize that it may include some indiscretions on his part regarding national security, but why do I get the impression that had he been willing to play ball with the administration regarding Benghazi, he would still have his job as director of the CIA?

"Why does Mr. Obama seem to get everything he wants, from Supreme Court appointees to Obamacare, to avoiding being held responsible for gun running operations like 'Fast and Furious' and Benghazi? This is absurd. He certainly appears to be above the law in every way.

"Is everyone THAT afraid of taking on Mr. Obama? If so, the Democratic Party certainly chose wisely when they chose Mr. Obama who - out of all candidates - was the least qualified person to be president. Yet, he's black so other liberals and the lap-dog media can claim racism anytime someone says something about Mr. Obama that they don't like. It works for them.

"Fast and Furious' has been drawn out and looks like it may eventually go away. The same will likely happen with Benghazi, in spite of the fact that the weapons that have been allegedly funneled into Syria from Libya and elsewhere appear to be part of the picture.

"I'm not sure how Mr. Obama gets away with reclassifying Drone pictures and video as top secret to avoid having to show anyone.

"At the same time, I am not sure how Mr. Obama gets away with citing executive privilege regarding 'Fast and Furious' to help Mr. Holder avoid jail time and other serious problems.

"Mr. Obama issues 'executive orders' like candy and no one does anything. They don't even question him on the misuse of these EOs. It's like they have no clue how to stop him. He's obviously getting some very good advice from people somewhere because I don't think he's smart enough to come up with this stuff on his own.

"Either people in Congress are too afraid of being called 'racists' or they simply do not know how to stop Mr. Obama's tyranny.

"How many times does Mr. Obama have to say or imply that he would like to rewrite the Constitution before someone decides what he's saying is treasonous?

"The people of America have elected people to represent us, yet there seems to be precious little of the necessary follow-through happening in Congress. All the while, Mr. Obama grows more arrogant than ever.

"Because of Obamacare, I can look forward to roughly 20 new taxes that will hit me and my family in 2013.

"Because of new EPA regulations coming down the pike, I can look forward to fuel prices as well as other things going up over time.

"I appreciate what you are trying to do...Unfortunately, there does not seem to be anyone powerful enough in Congress who truly knows how to stop Mr. Obama.

"Speaker Boehner is too busy 'punishing' conservatives by removing them from committees. Others in Congress seem to be standing around wringing their hands not knowing what to do.

"We have a dictator in the White House who in 2006 said that raising the debt ceiling is a sign of failure, but now wants full control over it. How does THAT work?

"Moreover, how is it that the Federal gov't continues to run WITHOUT a budget, which is against the law created by the Constitution? Is Harry Reid that powerful? Apparently.

"Mr. Obama is off vacationing to the tune of roughly $4 million dollars of tax payer money and looks like he won't be around when the vote is taken for the 'fiscal cliff.'

"I say let's go over this cliff. Mr. Obama is not negotiating in good faith. He wants everything and is willing to give NOTHING as any type of guarantee and I have a feeling, too many weak-kneed individuals in Congress will eventually give him what he wants. Is that good for America? Is it good for Americans?

"The problem in Benghazi - like Fast and Furious - has to do with gun-running. That's clear (and it's no wonder the U.S. wants to grant control of the Internet to the UN so that they can not only charge us for using it but control the information we get from it). I am frankly, fed up with business as usual in DC. The GOP really doesn't seem to know what it's doing, I'm sorry to say.

"I apologize for my rant. Please forgive me, but I've come to realize that my government - the one that is supposed to be for the people and by the people - appears to have been hijacked some time ago by powerful people and they're simply bulldozing right over my rights."

Note how I have laid out many issues. They all tie together. It is not merely one issue, or two, or even three. The global elite has successfully created a myriad of issues that keep people busy by causing them to focus on one or two issues, and the longer they focus on those few issues, the less chance they will have at seeing everything.

Let's play a bit of a game so you can visualize what I'm talking about here. Look at the photo (on the previous page). Stare at it. Try to figure out what it represents. Take a few moments.

Now, if you said that this photo represents an IDF soldier stepping on the chest of a Palestinian child while her mother kneels at the girl's side, you would be wrong. You are repeating what just about everyone who saw this photo (when it was first presented in the news) believed about the photo. In fact, many still believe that this is what this photo truly represents. Unfortunately, they are 100% wrong.

*"The...picture does NOT show an IDF soldier stepping on a Palestinian girl. These are not IDF uniforms, not IDF gloves, and the AK47 is not the IDF's standard weapon (I am not even sure that this is a real gun). But even without these details, one could tell that there is something strange in this pic – more than anything, it's the cool indifference of the entire scene."*³⁶

For people who were simply not aware of the truth of the photo, they are led to believe that the Israelis were the antagonists and that they would even stoop so low as to bring harm not only to civilians in Palestine, but to young children. Believing this colors the way people think about Israelis and Israel.

Here's another example. You've probably seen this before. What do you see, an elderly couple or a guy playing a guitar and a woman carrying a vase on her head? It depends upon what you are focusing on and how you are looking at the image in the first place. It is all about your focus.

³⁶ <http://972mag.com/whats-wrong-with-this-pic-that-its-fake/34420/> (12/08/2012)

As you research, you have to keep in mind that it doesn't boil down to one or two or even several issues. Society has been inundated with a maze or network of issues that the elite have created. They don't put all their eggs in one basket. They are constantly working through a plethora of venues to achieve their goals. People who get locked onto one or two issues miss the whole picture entirely.

All of us need to research, research, research until, like a large puzzle, all the pieces start coming together. You will then see what turns out to be a photo of a large mountainous area, complete with trees, flowers, a small lake, a blue sky filled with clouds overhead, birds in the trees and small animals running along near the water's edge. It is much larger than a few puzzle pieces that show one part of a tree or a tiny flower.

While you might see part of a flower here or a small animal there or part of a cloud with another puzzle piece, you will never see the completed puzzle like that. The individual pieces – while very important – are not the completed puzzle. They merely play their part in helping to create the whole puzzle. It's only when you get all of the pieces together that you see the entire puzzle at the same time made up of all the pieces.

This is what you must do with anything that deals with the global elite. You can only be issue-oriented insofar as you see those individual issues as part of the whole. Do not stop to focus on the issues but allow them to come together to paint the full picture for you.

The more you learn about the global elite, the bigger the picture gets. I was on a forum dealing with some of the more well-known conspiracy theories. I came across a thread that dealt with chemtrails – the belief that large aircraft spray poisons and chemicals as they fly across the sky. This is allegedly done to deliberately create disease among people in society. I honestly do not know whether this is true or not. I have not researched it enough to know. It sounds farfetched to me, but it could have truth to it.

One individual was so shocked after learning about chemtrails that she simply stated, "This is disgusting! How do we stop this?" This person seemed to be someone new to this whole area of chemtrails and other conspiracies. If chemtrails are real, then they are also part of what the global elite is perpetrating against humanity. If that is the case, then we cannot "stop it" unless we have enough power that comes from untold wealth in order to weigh in on the issue.

Issues are only as good as the full picture they eventually disclose. Chemtrails may be part of the process (I really have no idea). Even if they are, it does no good to simply focus on that one issue. We need to take everything to its natural end, and we will then realize just how big the final picture is and what it all means for society.

As I have stated, knowledge is freedom. The more knowledge we gain about the global elite, the UN, and the spiritual forces behind both of these entities, the freer we become from their tyranny.

Chapter 10

Secret Societies

It is very clear to a growing number of people in society that there are secret groups of people who rule aspects of society from the shadows. These secret societies – as they are known – hold sway over politicians, the media, and even the secular groups within society that seem to many to be simply fronts for these groups.

Such appears to be the case with the United Nations. We have already briefly discussed the deeply spiritual connections of the UN stemming from its connection to the spiritual realm. We have seen that there is a direct link between the founders of the UN and the spiritual forces that now move within the UN, guiding it to its coming one-world conclusion.

We have also noted that the deep spiritual roots of the UN may well be the same as that of other groups and entities, ranging from what we know about the events at the Bohemian Grove, to Alice Bailey's Lucis Trust, to the global elite itself. It should be clear by now to all who care to honestly see what is beyond the veil of secrecy that these groups may well all be controlled by one major group within the world that, long ago, opened the door to Satan and his spiritual minions in order to bring his will to bear on this planet.

As we have noted, while these secret societies have their goals for this planet, what they do not grasp (because it is hidden from them) is that Satan's goals go beyond what he is willing to tell them. Since they put little to no stock in the truthfulness of the Bible, their already darkened minds are unable to see Satan's true goals. They cannot see that Satan loses, having already lost at Calvary's cross over 2,000 years ago.

Yet these secret societies exist and continue to push toward a world where they believe they will reign supreme under the leadership of their spiritual commander, Lucifer (Satan). To the average person, this sounds like sheer nonsense, but the truth of the matter is whether it is nonsense or not, it would seem that these secret societies fully believe in Lucifer as their god (whom they believe to be good, not evil) and seek to obey him.

We must also realize that these shadow societies believe that they gain tremendous spiritual knowledge (gnosis) from their loyalty to Lucifer. This knowledge helps them achieve the goals that they believe have been given to them from Lucifer, which in turn allow them to be thoroughly free of God's "shackles." This freedom – they believe – allows them to seek their goals for the earth, and at least part of that includes bringing Lucifer to this earth in physical form (through the future Antichrist).

Let's take a few moments to briefly go over the facts concerning some of these secret groups which in many ways are no longer truly secret. Frankly, there is so much information (some of it factual; some of it purposefully sensational) that it is difficult to summarize here in these pages. There have been plenty of books written on the subject and readers would do well to avail themselves of as much information as they can locate.

Rothschilds

It is safe to say that if we were to create a pyramid of societies, the family of the Rothschilds would likely be near or at the top of that pyramid. The name – Rothschilds – has become synonymously connected to what is known as the Illuminati. As one writer states, "The 'Illuminati' was a name used by a German sect that existed in the 15th century. They practiced the occult, and professed to possess the 'light' that Lucifer had retained when he became Satan."³⁷

Again, note the emphasis on Lucifer. For those within the Rothschilds (as well as other secret groups or offshoots of the one main group), Lucifer is the one who is willing to share the "light" he allegedly retained after his unsuccessful rebellion against God. The fact that he lost through his fall from grace after attempting to go up against God is apparently lost on members of these secret groups (since they do not believe the Bible). They actually trust that with Lucifer's help, they will help him finally achieve what he has longed for since the days prior to his rebellion, in which God stripped him of his previous rank.

Regarding the history of the Rothschilds, we note that it dates back to the year 1743. "In 1743 a goldsmith named Amschel Moses Bauer

³⁷ <http://www.redicecreations.com/specialreports/2005/08aug/redshield.html>
(12/08/2012)

*opened a coin shop in Frankfurt, Germany. He hung above his door a sign depicting a Roman eagle on a red shield. The shop became known as the Red Shield firm. The German word for 'red shield' is Rothschild."*³⁸

The actual house of Rothschild came into being through Amschel Moses Bauer's son, Mayer. Recognized for his tremendous business acumen, he quickly rose through the ranks of the bank he worked at, owned by the Oppenheims. Mayer was eventually awarded a junior partnership. Through his association with the Oppenheimer-owned bank, Mayer was introduced to a gentleman named General von Estorff, who ultimately introduced Mayer to the palace of Prince William.

Mayer became successful enough that he was able to return and purchase the business his father had begun in Frankfurt, Germany. The red shield still hung over that business. It was at this point that Mayer changed his last name from Bauer to Rothschild (red shield).

One of the major lessons that Mayer learned was the importance of loaning money. In order to make the most of it, Mayer realized that loaning money to governments and kings was far better than simply loaning money to average individuals. First of all, the sums were larger, and secondly, the money was backed by the taxes that the government or monarchy assessed. Therefore, repayment of the loans was guaranteed.

Out of his five sons, it was Nathan Rothschild who appeared to be the brightest when it came to understanding the intricacies of using money to gain more of it. "When [Nathan] got to London, he became a

³⁸ <http://www.redicecreations.com/specialreports/2005/08aug/redshield.html>
(12/08/2012)

*merchant banker and began to cement ties between the House of Rothschild and the Bank of England.”*³⁹

The House of Rothschild continued their quest to gain as much money as possible, buying and selling bullion and rare coins. *“Through their shrewd business transactions they successfully bought out or dismantled most of the competition in Europe. In 1769, Meyer became a court agent for Prince William IX of Hesse-Kassel, who was the grandson of George II of England, a cousin to George III, a nephew of the King of Denmark, and a brother-in-law to the King of Sweden. Before long, the House of Rothschild became the go between for big Frankfurt bankers like the Bethmann Brothers, and Rueppell & Harnier.”*⁴⁰

It helps us to understand that life in those days was far different from what it is today as far as the banking industry is concerned. There would be no way for this to occur again if someone were to start from this point in 2013. Yes, banks can still be purchased, countries can still be toppled, etc., but because of the deep-seated power of the Rothschilds, there is no one who can repeat what they managed to do. They were in the right place at the right time and their wealth is larger than many nations.

It was in 1785 that the ability to control events on a national level came into play. During that time, Meyer Rothschild became associated with the Schiff family. Years later, a grandson to the Schiffs – Jacob – became “the mastermind behind the funding of the Bolshevik Revolution. This action would successfully instate communism as a major world movement, which was, (and still is), a basic tenet of the Illuminati and their collectivist agenda...From this point on the Rothschilds and the Schiffs would play a central role in the rest of European *financial history, and subsequently that of the United States and the world.”*⁴¹

³⁹ <http://www.redicecreations.com/specialreports/2005/08aug/redshield.html>
(12/08/2012)

⁴⁰ Ibid

As one thing often builds upon another, what happened next is how things all started moving effectively toward a one-world government. Though it has taken several hundred years to accomplish, the truth is that it has happened very fast in comparison to the entire timeline since Creation.

*“Meyer Rothschild began to realize that in order to attain the power necessary to influence and control the finances of the various monarchs in Europe, he would have to wrest this influence and power from the church, which would necessitate its destruction. To accomplish this, he enlisted the help of a Catholic priest, Adam Weishaupt, to assemble a secret Satanic order.”*⁴²

Adam Weishaupt is the name most closely associated with the Illuminati, second only to the House of Rothschild, and from the above paragraph we can see how the connection was originally made. What I find absolutely tragic is how often Satan finds and uses Jewish individuals to accomplish his deeds on this planet. If he cannot destroy Israel and kill all Jews as he has attempted to do on so many occasions, he will settle for turning them completely against the God who created them.

Such is the case with Weishaupt, who became enlisted in the service of Mayer Rothschild for the purposes of ultimately destroying the church. In order for this to happen, it would have to be destroyed from within, and since Weishaupt was a Catholic priest, amenable to the designs of Mayer Rothschild, he could easily begin to create the situations that would eventually bring destruction to the church. Though a Catholic priest, Weishaupt had become an atheist through his association with the Jesuits. He also became a student of Voltaire, the French atheist philosopher.

⁴¹ <http://www.redicecreations.com/specialreports/2005/08aug/redshield.html>
(12/08/2012)

⁴² Ibid

"It is believed that, as a result of Voltaire's writings, Weishaupt formulated his ideas concerning the destruction of the Church. In 1775, when summoned by the House of Rothschild, he immediately defected and, at the behest of Meyer, began to organize the Illuminati. The 1st chapter of the order started in his home town of Ingolstadt.

*"As the name implies, those individuals who are members of the Illuminati possess the 'Light of Lucifer'. As far as they are concerned, only members of the human race who possess the 'Light of Lucifer' are truly enlightened and capable of governing. Denouncing God, Weishaupt and his followers considered themselves to be the cream of the intelligentsia - the only people with the mental capacity, the knowledge, the insight and understanding necessary to govern the world and bring it peace. Their avowed purpose and goal was the establishment of a 'Novus Ordo Seclorum' - a New World Order, or One World Government."*⁴³

So how does this connect with America? Everything noted so far has involved areas of Europe. Mayer Rothschild continued ventures that gained a great deal more money as well as power, and his sons did the same in other parts of Europe.

Remember, the stated goal for the Illuminati has always been to establish a new world order (NWO): a one-world government. With this as the main goal, who do you believe saw themselves at the top of the pyramid? The Rothschilds, of course. Those who supported them through unflinching loyalty would also be rewarded when the NWO came into being. Those who stood against them would be done away with or kept around as true serfs.

⁴³ <http://www.redicecreations.com/specialreports/2005/08aug/redshield.html>
(12/08/2012)

*“During the American Revolution, the House of Rothschild brokered a deal between the Throne of England and Prince William of Germany. William was to provide 16,800 Hessian soldiers to help England stop the Revolution in America. Rothschild was also made responsible for the transfer of funds that were to pay the German soldiers. The transfer was never made. The soldiers were never paid, which may account for their poor showing. The Americans prevailed. At this point Meyer Rothschild set his sights on America.”*⁴⁴

As we can see, the Rothschilds forced themselves into the game by taking sides financially with respect to England and Germany against America. The idea here was to help England retain the ability to tax America. Through duplicitous dealings, German soldiers were not paid, and as stated, America won.

Realizing that America was a brand new nation that could be taken from the ground floor, the House of Rothschild then decided that taking control of America was the next best thing to do, and this could and would be done through the banking industry.

Even though there was great resistance from people like Benjamin Franklin, eventually the House of Rothschild got its way. Though Franklin resisted until his death, *“Alexander Hamilton pushed through legislation that would provide for the charter of The First Bank of the United States. Ironically, the bank was chartered by the Bank of England to finance the war debt of the Revolutionary War. Nathan Rothschild invested heavily in that first bank. He immediately set about to control all financial activity, between banks, in America.”*⁴⁵

It is logical to understand that those who control the purse strings of a nation control that nation. It is true on a national level as well as an individual level. When people owe money for a car, or a home, they are indebted to the bank from which they have their loan. That bank then controls aspects of that person's life. Failure to repay what they owe can mean everything from defaulting on a loan to repossession of a vehicle or even losing their home. All of this gets reported on the individual's credit report, making it more difficult, if not impossible in some cases, to borrow money later.

⁴⁴ <http://www.redicecreations.com/specialreports/2005/08aug/redshield.html>
(12/08/2012)

⁴⁵ Ibid

At the same time, for individuals, their credit score means almost everything in a world where the banking cartel runs things. This is true of individuals and nations.

In America, much of our exorbitant debt is carried by China and other countries. In essence, then, we are beholden to them because of what we owe them. The more we owe the less sovereignty we maintain. This is how it works because the Illuminati knows (and creates situations in which it is true) that holding the purse strings of any nation equals the ability to control that nation. When a group has control over another group, the group holding the power has the ability to squelch the group over which they hold power. The group that has lost power is no longer free to do the things that are in the best interests of that particular nation and its citizens.

It is all a matter of who controls what, and it is clear that with the Rothschilds, once they learned that controlling the purse strings of another nation allowed them to control major aspects of that nation, things changed forever, and not for the better. Though there were safeguards built into the U.S. Constitution with respect to keeping the banking industry from getting its hands on the money system of America, the banking cartel managed to do it anyway eventually.

Because of this, the banking cartel constantly created cycles of inflation and deflation. These cycles caused people to have to borrow to keep their farms going or to buy homes. Once given the power over people through debt, banks were then free to increase or lower interest rates seemingly at will, further creating cycles of profit and loss for average individuals at great profit for banks. An extremely important problem was created because of this power that the banking cartel had (and continues to have) over people. *“People who could not pay their mortgages would have their homes and farms repossessed by the bank for a fraction of their true value. This is the essence of the Illuminati ploy, and it would recur, time and time again. In fact, it's still happening today.”*⁴⁶

Rothschilds

Illuminati

(c) 2012, F. DeRuvo - individual listings for each group represents a sampling, not a complete list.

As can be imagined, the House of Rothschild grew in power and authority over the Bank of England as well as the Bank of the United States. When the charter of the Bank of the United States was not renewed, Mayer Rothschild was hit hard to the tune of millions of dollars, which, of course, would equal billions today.

Because of this, it is believed that Mayer struck back hard, working through English Parliament to create the war of 1812. He somehow managed to convince Parliament that they could retake the colonies of America, gain the victory over them, and once again begin taxing them as an essential subsidiary of England. Though this failed, *“Any serious historian will find that the Civil War was largely stirred up by Rothschild's illuminati agents in the United States.”*⁴⁷ This is known as using false flags to create situations that instigate fear in society and allow the government to take a country into war or otherwise crack down on freedoms in society.

As can be seen in the chart on the previous page, the Rothschilds and the resultant Illuminati, have positioned themselves over many parts of society. This has given them the ability to reach into various aspects of society and change what they have wanted to change in order that their goals for a future one-world government would be positioned to occur. Unfortunately, unknown to most of us, this has been going on for generations.

⁴⁶ <http://www.redicecreations.com/specialreports/2005/08aug/redshield.html>
(12/08/2012)

⁴⁷ Ibid

In other books I have written, I have noted the fact that while the global elite always works to control individual nations by directing the purse strings for that nation, another avenue that works very well is fomenting societal change through wars and rumors of wars. It would be interesting to know which wars were created and foisted upon societies by the unscrupulous global elite. We might well learn that most, if not all, wars have been the result of the House of Rothschild and their agents in order to gain more wealth (and therefore, power) to control humanity. Societal fear often results in a loss of freedoms. We are dealing with severely corrupt and evil people who have given themselves over to Satan himself.

Regarding the wars throughout history since the Rothschilds, one writer observes the following: *“The Dark Side’ has been on both sides of every war that has been fought in modern times. American and British Intelligence have documented evidence that the House of Rothschild has financed both sides of every war, since the American Revolution. Financier Haym Salomon, an Illuminati agent, supported the patriots during the American Revolution, then later made loans to James Madison, Thomas Jefferson, and James Monroe. As explained earlier, during the Napoleonic Wars, one branch of the family funded Napoleon, while another financed Great Britain, Germany, and other nations.”*⁴⁸

This is not a game to the Rothschilds or their Illuminati. They have been playing for keeps, and they well understand that the more money one has, the more power is also gained. At the same time, the only way to have absolute power over any nation is through the direct control of that nation’s finances. This has been played out repeatedly.

⁴⁸ <http://www.redicecreations.com/specialreports/2005/08aug/redshield.html>
(12/08/2012)

In recent times, we have seen Libya, Tunisia, Egypt, and other countries all toppled. The dictators that ruled them are out, replaced with either puppets of the Muslim Brotherhood or people who sympathize with the MB. With the old regimes gone and the new ones in, it is possible for the Illuminati to gain control of the new governments of these nations from the start by loaning billions of dollars to them so that their new governments can get off the ground. Once those nations' leaders accept the money, they instantly become indebted to the banking cartels and are obligated to do their bidding.

This is what it is all about for the Illuminati because they will see their goals of a NWO resulting in a one-world government come to fruition. To this end they work and they really do not care how their efforts affect the average person in this world, who is little more than a servant to them anyway. They believe that because of their alleged spiritual insight and worth, they deserve to rule over all people. This is what the 'light of Lucifer' tells them: that they are gods of the earth who were born to rule over the rest of us mortals.

Remember, in order to control a nation, one must control the money of that nation. Since the U.S. Constitution prohibited a large central bank that could ultimately be used to circumvent the Constitution by unscrupulous investors (thus ultimately controlling our currency), it was very difficult to create any lasting centralized banking system that would oversee America's financial interests.

The idea was to change that, and change it they did, through the Federal Reserve Act of 1913. "The Federal Reserve Act was the brainchild of Baron Alfred Rothschild of London. The final version of the Act was decided on at a secret meeting at Jekyll Island, Georgia, owned by J.P. Morgan. Present at the meeting were; A. Piatt Andrew, Assistant secretary of the Treasury, Senator Nelson Aldrich, Frank Vanderlip, President of Kuhn Loeb and Co., Henry Davidson, Senior Partner of J.P. Morgan Bank, Charles Norton, President of Morgan's First National Bank of New York, Paul Warburg, Partner in Khun Loeb and Co. and Benjamin Strong, President of Morgan's Bankers Trust Co.”⁴⁹

I have bolded part of the above quote for emphasis. Once the Federal Reserve Act was generated, it was really the beginning of the end for the U.S. Constitution and the United States. America would embark on a road in which the global power elite would slowly dismantle it to take over control. The speed with which this is happening today is absolutely incredible, and I truly believe it is happening so fast because of the fact that the global elite installed this country's first president of color. People are deathly afraid of being called “racist,” and because of that Mr. Obama seems to have carte blanche to do whatever the global elite tells him to do.

From the beginnings of the Federal Reserve onward, control of this nation increasingly fell into the hands of the banking cartel. We have seen the results of this in many areas of the economy; not simply the economy of the United States, but the economies throughout the world.

“Today, the world stands in fear as Ben Shalom Bernanke, the Jewish head of the Federal Reserve is in the process of destroying the eminence of the United States of America. We see this today through the collapse of the Eurozone economy and the rise of the New European Union, with one government, one bank, and one currency.”⁵⁰

⁴⁹ <http://www.redicecreations.com/specialreports/2005/08aug/redshield.html>
(12/08/2012)

⁵⁰ <http://destination-yisrael.biblesearchers.com/destination-yisrael/2011/12/is-the-rothschild-temple-being-prepared-to-be-built-on-the-temple-mount.html>
(12/09/2012)

Chapter 11

Israel

What is interesting about the Rothschilds is not only how deeply involved they are with the banking cartels, but how much interest they have in the nation of Israel. Is this because they are pro-Israel as an authentic Christian is pro-Israel? Do they want what is best for Israel? Are they essentially on God's side where Israel is concerned?

On the next page, I've included a photo of the Israeli Supreme Court building, which was built with House of Rothschild money and literally forced on the people of Israel. Notice that included in the design is a pyramid with an all-seeing eye. This and other occultic symbols make up this monstrosity that Israel must deal with strictly because of the Rothschild's Illuminati and their money. Symbols are everything to them, and the design of the Supreme Court pictured above is said to include many symbols of the occult that are obvious throughout. For a full explanation of these symbols, information is available at the URL connected to the footnote below.⁵¹

The Rothschilds have been involved in the Middle East for a variety of reasons. One author notes that the Rothschilds "began their multi-million dollar investment in the Zionist state of Israel in 1882 in order to preserve their control over the Suez Canal and future water rights."⁵² See? It's all about money, which creates power.

They continue their involvement in Israel today as noted with the Israeli Supreme Court, as one example. Beyond this, the Rothschilds are believed to be the major sponsor of the upcoming Temple project. Orthodox Jews want the Jewish Temple to be rebuilt on the Temple Mount. Obviously, several factors are involved that prohibit this from taking place at the moment. Most notably, the Dome of the Rock mosque that sits atop the Temple Mount, as well as the Al-Aqsa mosque not far away, located on the same Temple Mount. Muslims, of course, consider these mosques to be holy places for Muslims (though the city of Jerusalem is never once directly mentioned in any portion of the Qur'an). The Dome of the Rock mosque has been built over the place where it is said Muhammad ascended to heaven.

⁵¹ <http://vigilantcitizen.com/sinistersites/sinister-sites-israel-supreme-court/> (12/08/2012)

⁵² <http://www.realjewnews.com/?p=129> (12/09/2012)

Rebuilding a Jewish Temple on the same Temple Mount would require either the removal of the Dome of the Rock mosque or relocating the Jewish Temple to another place on the Temple Mount. Neither of these solutions would sit well with either Muslims or Jews.

"The Rothschilds have been the main financial sponsors of archaeological digs in Israel. The Masada Dig was first known to the Israelis as the 'Edmond de Rothschild Masada Dig' under the auspices of the Rothschilds' Palestine Exploration Fund. The PEF established the Biblical Archaeology Society which publishes the Biblical Archaeology Review touting it as the authority on Solomon's Temple.

"In December of 1995, a month after Rabin was assassinated, the Jerusalem Masonic Lodge was established adjacent to the Temple Mount in the underground Grotto of King Solomon. The lodge was founded by the Grand Master of the Italian illuminati Giuliano Di Bernardo who at the opening ceremony declared, "The rebuilding of the Temple is at the center of our studies."⁵³

Another author notes, "The Rothschild relationship to the Jews is deceiving. The family stance is publicized as 'pro-Jewish,' and they have given abundant charity to Jewish causes. But their support of the Jewish race has, in most cases, been used for the sole purpose of controlling *the direction and profiting from the Jews. The Rothschilds have been described as the royal family of the Jews. Many leading Rothschilds have been dubbed 'King of the Jews.' But what kind of Judaism do the Rothschilds support? Do they support the orthodox Jews who believe in the Old Testament and are waiting for the return of the messiah? No. Do they support Messianic Jews who believe Jesus Christ was the messiah who came to save all men? No."*⁵⁴

⁵³ <http://www.realjewnews.com/?p=129> (12/09/2012)

We know from the Bible that the coming Antichrist will, at the midpoint of the Tribulation, enter the rebuilt Jewish Temple and take up a position inside the Holy of Holies. There, he will declare himself to be God and demand to be worshiped. This is essentially what the apostle Paul tells us in 2 Thessalonians 2:3-4. "Let no one in any way deceive you, for it will not come unless the apostasy comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, who opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God."

In order for this event to occur, the Jewish Temple will obviously need to be rebuilt at some future point. Since it appears so obvious from many sources that the Rothschilds have been busy supporting Israel for several hundred years, they will also support them in their bid to rebuild the Temple. This is the Temple that will exist during the coming Tribulation, and it will be within the confines of that coming Temple that the Antichrist will declare himself to be God.

According to at least one website, the Rothschilds actually purchased the entire Temple Mount and some surrounding acreage for the sum of 500 million francs.⁵⁵ If this is true, then obviously, the Rothschilds control what occurs on the Temple Mount. It is possible they are simply allowing things go their natural course for now, but this same website that tells us of the Rothschilds' purchase tells us of a plan that will work in their favor so that the Jewish Temple will be rebuilt.

⁵⁴ <https://sites.google.com/site/whistleblower/thehouseofrothschildsandisrael> (12/09/2012)

⁵⁵ <http://destination-yisrael.biblesearchers.com/destination-yisrael/2011/12/is-the-rothschild-temple-being-prepared-to-be-built-on-the-temple-mount.html> (12/09/2012)

Ultimately, part of this plan includes having a permanent “home of worship” atop the Temple Mount so that several religious groups could worship side-by-side without interference from the other groups. Interestingly enough, at least one website highlights this possibility, calling it “God’s Holy Mountain.”⁵⁶

As noted with the painting above from the “God’s Holy Mountain” site, people of all three main faiths gather together on the Temple Mount to worship their respective God. Of course, Muslims believe that Allah and the God of the Bible are the same, so there is no difficulty for them. Christians, on the other hand, do not believe that Allah and Jehovah are the same at all (in spite of the fact that the name “Allah” simply means God).

⁵⁶ <http://www.godsholymountain.org/English/index.aspx> (12/09/2012)

Yet this is part of the Rothschilds' plan that is in the making. For this to work, each group will have to be willing to compromise, and unfortunately, neither authentic Christians nor orthodox Jews would be willing to do so. However, this will not stop the Rothschilds from moving ahead with their plan to recreate the top of the Temple Mount so that a house of worship is available to all three groups. In the end, though, we know that at least enough of the Jewish Temple will be rebuilt that a Holy of Holies will exist.

Regarding the Rothschilds, *"It [remains] their belief that whenever these three religions [are] once pacified to live in harmony with each other under the control of the International Community, it would eventually be transformed into a New World Order Religion...the ultimate solution to thousands of years of hatred, pogroms, sectarian wars and international hotspots would be neutralized by having a common home for each of the great religions to worship."*⁵⁷ (emphasis added)

Accordingly, the Pope himself will be on hand in Jerusalem at that future point *"to dedicate the groundbreaking for the new international, interfaith worship center, [and] he will declare all world's religions to be united, and the New World Order Religion will be born!"*⁵⁸

The problem is that many see the difficulties in the Middle East and specifically those related to the Temple Mount as a political problem. The reality is that this is not a political problem at all (or at least not solely), but largely a religious problem. "Any purely political settlement in the Middle East would not, by itself, bring peace. In other words, a purely political settlement would leave the religious nature of the problem unsolved. Any permanent solution to the Middle East conflict would also have to see the religious portion of the problem solved."

⁵⁷ <http://destination-yisrael.biblesearchers.com/destination-yisrael/2011/12/is-the-rothschild-temple-being-prepared-to-be-built-on-the-temple-mount.html> (12/09/2012)

⁵⁸ Ibid

*Once this religious problem is solved, then the power and influence of the Orthodox Jews in Israel would permanently decline.”*⁵⁹

Here is where it gets interesting from a political, religious, and global perspective. The Rothschilds (as well as their Illuminati) learned quite some time ago that war and rumors of war can be used to not only keep people and nations off balance, but also to change the way society thinks about issues.

It appears that this is exactly what the Rothschilds have done and continue to do with respect to the situation in Jerusalem especially. War has often been used as the solution for prime objectives created by the global elite. It appears to be the same with Jerusalem and the entire Middle East problem. The main goal is peace for Jews, Muslims, and Christians, allowing all three groups to worship on the same Temple Mount without fear of reprisals from the other groups.

*“To fulfill these future objectives, long term strategic plans were put into place to create an atmosphere of war and the rhetoric of war continued until the political and religious changes in Israel and Jerusalem were put in place.”*⁶⁰ See how this works? Until peace is truly achievable, the powers that be are keeping wars and rumors of wars on the table as a viable tool to actually push for peace.

Several months ago, a proposal was laid out that would grant Jews certain days/times to go to the Temple Mount to pray.⁶¹ While it is doubtful that the Muslim leadership will agree to this, it is an option, and even if this fails, other options will be put forth.

⁵⁹ <http://destination-yisrael.biblesearchers.com/destination-yisrael/2011/12/is-the-rothschild-temple-being-prepared-to-be-built-on-the-temple-mount.html> (12/09/2012)

⁶⁰ Ibid

⁶¹ <http://www.israelnationalnews.com/News/News.aspx/158745#.UMTat3e9HF8> (12/09/2012)

The problem of the Middle East seems to be that human powers, dominated by dark spiritual forces, are pushing things to happen in the Middle East. Wars and rumors of wars are being used to keep things in a constant state of flux, creating fear and insecurities. This will constantly put pressure on rulers and leaders to do whatever they can to bring peace to the nation of Israel, surrounded by Arabs and Muslims.

It appears, in many ways, to be coming to a head. *“The Illuminati that represents the interests of the Israeli Freemasons, the Rothschilds and the Federal Reserve, the Vatican, and the Jesuits were in essence manipulating the world geo-politics in order to fulfill the prophecies of Daniel and Revelation and produce a decade of ‘fear of wars’ not just War.”*⁶² These warlike situations will continue until the Illuminati can manipulate things to such an extent that the necessary political and religious changes will be reached. Once this is accomplished, “peace” will be achieved and the new Temple can then be rebuilt. Once the Temple is rebuilt, things can then move ahead to eventually reveal the “man of sin” who will be the final leader of the world. It is to this end that the Rothschilds, the Illuminati, the UN, and all other New Age-type secret societies have been working.

What happens in the Middle East occurs due to the direct control of the Illuminati simply because the plan for a one-world government culminates with Jerusalem. As far as the world is concerned now, the constant propaganda fed to society by the news and agents of the Illuminati is believed wholeheartedly (except among true conservatives): that Israel is the source of problems, and had Israel not moved into that area of the world in the first place to reestablish their nation, once again becoming a viable nation in 1948, all would be well. That tension needs to continue to exist until all other objectives are in place.

⁶² <http://www.israelnationalnews.com/News/News.aspx/158745#.UMTat3e9HF8>
(12/09/2012)

This is the height of misdirection through propaganda because the Illuminati wants and needs to control Jerusalem and Israel in order to bring its final plans of world control to fruition. The Illuminati must not only control the geo-political aspects of this world, but must also control the religious aspect of the world as well. We know that this is also clear from the book of Revelation, where two beasts are discussed; one is a human being and the other represents the system by which the world runs. That includes politics as well as religion.

The coming one-world government will, of necessity, control all aspects of society, including religion. There is no way that religion will continue to operate separately from the coming one-world government. Everything will come under the watchful eye of government forces when this one-world, end times system is ultimately created.

It will only be when the Antichrist goes into the rebuilt Temple, takes his place in the Holy of Holies, and declares himself to be God that the newly formed religion of that one-world government (consisting of a mix of Christianity, Islam, and Judaism) will be deemed obsolete. It will then be eradicated as the Bible indicates in Revelation 17. The Great Harlot (the symbol for the false religions of the end times) will be destroyed. It will be due to the fact that “she” will no longer be needed that Antichrist will declare himself God and insist on being the object of worship. From that point onward, all worship will be directed to him. Those who are repelled at the notion of worshiping a man will be executed, probably through beheading (cf. Revelation 20:4).

Much of what happens in the Middle East appears to be uncontrolled chaos. In truth, though, it is controlled chaos, depicting the Middle East as constantly being a concern for world leaders. Peace will come, though at a huge price to freedom. Many world leaders understand what is happening in that corner of the world. They play the game and go along with what the powers that be have determined. Do not kid yourself. The fully planned orchestration of the Middle East is happening under the control and auspices of the Illuminati.

God allows it to go as planned solely because it fits His plans as well.
Ultimately, He will gain all the glory.

Chapter 12

False Flags

You've probably heard the term false flag. What exactly does it mean? Basically, a false flag is a staged event that is designed for one purpose: to deceive the public into thinking that entities outside the home country are carrying out terrorist-type events inside that country.

For instance, many believe that the original 9/11 event was a false flag, created and used by America's government to force us into a war with Iraq. So, in their view, the event was made to appear as though it was carried out by Muslim terrorists, but many of these folks believe that the event was planned and carried out by our own government as an excuse to declare war on Saddam Hussein and Iraq.

Other examples of events that people believe to be false flags include nearly all events where guns are used to kill a large number of people at one time. These events almost always result in politicians and society calling for more gun control laws. The issue of gun control plays directly into the hands of the global elite because it serves the purposes of the global elite to eradicate guns from society. This would be done not to eliminate crime, but to eliminate the potential of citizens arming themselves in resistance against government and its troops. History proves this repeatedly (see chart below).

Ultimately, false flags wind up not only causing serious problems for society, but new laws are almost always created that result in eroding or completely eradicating freedoms guaranteed under that government's founding documents. In the case of 9/11, Americans' rights have been eroded with the establishment of the TSA and additional security measures at airports. Though our founding documents prohibit unnecessary search and seizure (4th Amendment), the TSA manages to get around this by claiming that when we go to an airport, it is private property, and therefore, rights are given up at the door.

This same group – the TSA – under the auspices of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is now beginning to set up checkpoints within the United States where it is necessary to prove that an individual has the right to be in this country. It is another form of unnecessary search and seizure and one can only wonder what excuse will be used to continue and enlarge the practice.

At the same time this is occurring, state governments are being sued by the federal government for trying to determine in their own states who is here legally and who is not. The federal government is concerned regarding whether the state has a right to do that. Yet this same federal government shows no concern regarding the checkpoints they set up within the U.S. that infringe upon the rights of citizens.

Ultimately, when a false flag occurs, the public usually panics. They panic because they believe it is simply an incident that happened out of the blue. This panic creates a strong desire in many for the government to “save” society from the problem. The government obliges, but it always comes with a price. The price is often seen in a further erosion of rights and privileges. Unfortunately, most people don’t seem to mind.

How many times have you heard people say something like, “Well, if it keeps us safer in the air, I’m all for it” after some new security measure is foisted upon the flying public? Something like this is usually stated in response to a question from the press about that new security measure. The more problems occur in society, the more some are willing to give up their freedom in exchange for the belief that our government can and will keep us safe. This is devoid of logic.

Because people are so fearful of potentially becoming a victim of a terrorist event, they rely not on themselves to be safe, but on the government to keep them safe. They often believe that these events can be controlled by increased security measures. They fail to realize that it could well be our own government creating or at least allowing these events in order to reduce freedoms in society.

When thoroughly considered, we recognize that it's not even possible for police officers to be everywhere and to keep everyone safe. Yet many expect our government – through the use of one security measure after another – to keep our planes from being blown up as we travel from point A to point B. Again, it makes no sense from the standpoint of logic, but this is too often the way many people think.

Many historians believe that in order to put Hitler in power, officials needed a very large false flag. At the end of WWII, documents were discovered essentially showing that a fire did indeed appear to have been deliberately started in the German Parliament building, the Reichstadt. Because of this, the people became afraid, and Hitler then came to power. Along with this, new laws were made, effectively canceling out the German Constitution that had been the rule of law in Germany.⁶³

As usually happens and as already mentioned, the elite become far richer during times of war. War is a great way to keep the populace on edge and gain more power by obtaining a great deal more money through the sale of arms and through financial loans to countries so that they can buy the elite's arms in the first place. It is a twisted circle that yields tremendous profit for the elite.

⁶³ <http://www.wanttoknow.info/falseflag> (12/08/2012)

There have been other known false flags in the United States alone over the past several decades. *“Moreover, declassified U.S. Government documents show that in the 1960s, the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff signed off on a plan code-named Operation Northwoods to blow up American airplanes (using an elaborate plan involving the switching of airplanes), and also to commit terrorist acts on American soil, and then to blame it on the Cubans in order to justify an invasion of Cuba. The operation was not carried out only because the Kennedy administration refused to implement these Pentagon plans.”*⁶⁴ Could this have been part of the reason JFK was assassinated?

Ultimately, what this will eventually mean for America is that only so many more false flags are needed before the government will actually be “forced” to call for total Martial Law. By “forced,” I mean people will understand and accept the need for Martial Law because of what has been happening in society.

Once Martial Law is declared for the entire country, the U.S. Constitution is placed on the shelf. When that happens, an entirely new rule book is brought into the equation. Normally, the first thing that takes place is that citizens are expected to turn in all guns. Failure to do so will mean arrest. They can’t arrest everyone, so the government operates under the belief that when they start arresting people, the rest will comply out of fear of incarceration. Frankly, I don’t think people in the United States will give up their guns that easily, though.

The necessary goal is for the global elite to gain absolute control over every nation, including the United States. Once they have control, they will be able to force all nations to do what the global elite expect of them.

In the final analysis, it will mean rapidly moving toward a one-world government controlled by...you guessed it, the global elite – at least until the Antichrist makes his debut. This is what the global elite wants and needs to happen, and I believe it will happen because the Bible tells us that a one-world government is coming.

⁶⁴ Ibid

Douglas Herman comments on the problem of false flags: *“Strange how every ‘terrorist’ event in the past ten or fifteen years benefited the various imperial governments of Britain, Israel, Australia and the USA. These false flag terror operations help cement power, by spreading terror throughout the victim nation. By spreading the effects of terror – pictures of damage and film interviews of mass hysteria and confusion – the mainstream media of the traumatized country served as an unquestioning, ultra-effective propaganda vehicle. The national media acts as a brilliant, second phase of the false flag operation, by further spreading the terror while muddying the waters to any conflicting evidence or subsequent investigation.”*⁶⁵

Recall again how we have already discussed the fact that the global elite needs to gain power over (all) nations, usually accomplished by controlling that nation’s finances as a starting point. We also noted that once those who make up the global elite manage to achieve that, they begin to infiltrate the government as well as gain power over the media. Having the control of a nation via its finances, its government, and its media effectively means that those in control are the real rulers of said nation. That nation has lost its sovereignty to the ruling class: in this case, the global elite. This is what it is all about.

We all remember the Oklahoma City Bombing of the Murrow Building. Was there anything strange about that event? Douglas Herman notes the following. “OKC screamed false flag, then and now. The intended target? The US militia groups, millions of law-abiding patriots and Constitutionalists that had grown significantly after the Waco Massacre by the Clinton/Reno crime cult. Predictably, a prepro-

⁶⁵ <http://rense.com/general76/flagd.htm> (12/08/2012)

*grammed patsy, Timothy McVeigh, was tied to a militia group and blamed for the entire massacre.”*⁶⁶

Other notable events may also be false flags. It is difficult to know because the average person is usually kept from gaining all the facts. If not for the Internet, we would have far less to go on, which is of course why the powers that be would love to get their hands on the Internet in order to keep us completely in the dark. Before the Internet, people had no choice but to rely on what the mainstream news told them. Now, the Internet has all but made the mainstream news obsolete. Who needs the news when we can find out for ourselves what is really happening in the world?

I’m certainly not the only one who thinks so, either. *“There is no doubt that the Internet has gotten away from the Elite and their lies have been exposed. Small sites like mine and hundreds of others show over and over again, the Emperor has no clothes.”*⁶⁷ Controlling the Internet means controlling the way people think. It also means hiding motives behind many events, wars, and rumors of wars.

For instance, there is more and more talk about a war with Iran these days. Is it possible? I think it is very possible. We already know that the global elite would benefit mightily from another war that could very well turn into a full-scale world war. Think of the profits they would make from companies they own that deal with arms and munitions. It would also give our government in the USA the reason it needs to call for a limited Martial Law, at the very least.

One person has stated, *“The only thing I think big enough to scare the masses under the ‘protective’ hug of the Elite, is another World War.”*⁶⁸ I think he’s got a point there. As I’ve said, the more things people fear, the more they want the government to do what they can to relieve that fear, even if it means removing our rights and privileges guaranteed under the U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

⁶⁶ <http://rense.com/general76/flagd.htm> (12/08/2012)

⁶⁷ <http://dont-tread-on.me/?p=2827> (12/08/2012)

⁶⁸ ibid

It is also very, very possible that both the “Fast and Furious” and “Benghazi” operations were false flags. In fact, it’s almost common knowledge that at the very least “Fast and Furious” was an event designed as a gun-walking operation that was supposed to incite an outcry in society to curb gun violence through more anti-gun laws. It backfired big time, and the Obama administration, along with Eric Holder, went into a “stonewalling” mode, refusing to answer questions or provide documents to Congress. That alone tells us a great deal.

How do we know this? The Internet. Both Attorney General Eric Holder and Mr. Obama have done everything they can to resist Congress and the American people. No one is talking. No one wants to admit the truth. The worst part of it is that the government continues to move along as if everything has already been disclosed and there’s really nothing to report on. The media dutifully plays along, doing what it can to distract from the issues by using incendiary language that suggests racism is the real motivation with anyone who questions anything related to the Obama administration.

Benghazi is another story, but it may well have to do with more gun-running. Weapons in Libya may have been secreted to the rebels in Syria who have been trying to oust Assad’s regime. Why would our government try to cover this up? If they are covering it up, there is only one reason for it: America has been illegally supplying arms to the Syrian rebels through Libya because the global elite want to get rid of Assad so they can install another Muslim Brotherhood puppet instead, just as they did in Egypt with Morsi. If Morsi doesn’t work out, he’ll be replaced with someone else.

False flags are essentially designed as tactics that effectively change or create public opinion, laws and policies, or both. This is the purpose of false flags. It is much easier to change laws and eliminate resistance in society when situations are created that instill a deep sense of fear. When people are afraid, they become much more willing to give up at least some of their rights, and they feel good about doing so because they believe (wrongly) that the government is going to do whatever it takes to protect them from more evil. The government never winds up creating a safer society. That never happens. It's all smoke and mirrors.

With one of the most recent tragedies that have occurred – Sandy Hook – it is clear that both Mr. Obama's administration as well as individuals like Senators Dianne Feinstein and Barbara Boxer are earnestly doing what they can to create more legislation that will further erode the rights of law-abiding citizens with respect to gun rights.

Recently, Feinstein has been doing whatever she can to pass her anti-gun legislation in California. We can be assured that this will continue. Citing another situation that developed in California recently, ex-cop Chris Dorner (who went rogue) was fired from his job as a Los Angeles police officer and took out all of his frustrations on innocent people. He killed two civilians and then ambushed two police officers, and so far – as of this writing – has not been caught.

He has both military experience as well as law-enforcement training, which makes him a difficult individual to track and capture. The police are on high alert and even went so far as to pump 40 rounds of bullets into a vehicle that appeared similar to Dorner's. The problem was that it was not his vehicle. Inside were two women simply delivering newspapers. Neither was killed, but both were injured.

Meanwhile, many on the Left are hailing Dorner as some type of hero who ostensibly speaks for everyone. There are pages on social networks titled "We Are All Chris Dorner" because of the belief that all of us have somehow been wronged by police officers at some point in our lives. Of course, it really goes without saying that had Chris Dorner been a “rightwinger,” the media and pundits alike would be doing everything they could to eviscerate him on a daily basis for his heinous crimes. Instead, people want to look up to him as someone who has been pushed over the edge and has taken the law into his own hands. This is so absurd, it defies logic. It is similar to the outpouring of support O. J. Simpson received when he was acquitted of the charges of double homicide. Many still believe he is guilty of those crimes, but after the race card was introduced into the mix, justice may have gone out the window.

On top of all this, though, Feinstein and Boxer came out with their idea that if everyone in California – both civilians and police – would turn in their weapons, then Dorner would apparently see the light and turn himself in. Here is a quote, made by an intern, that is just too difficult to believe, and if it had not been actually in print, I don’t think I would believe it. *“The Senators feel the best course of action is to remove all weapons from law enforcement and private citizens so no one else gets hurt,’ said a Senate communications intern. ‘When the gunman realizes that nobody else is armed, he will lay down his weapons and turn himself in.... that’s just human nature’.”*⁶⁹

One of my questions is this: has Sen. Feinstein turned in the weapon that she carries concealed? Has she followed her own advice?

What of the idea that the police should turn in their weapons? Are we to become like the United Kingdom, where police officers no longer carry weapons? Gun crime in England has not been reduced because of their gun restrictions.

Interestingly enough, the mainstream media was relatively quiet on the full facts of this situation. Dorner had issued a 22-page manifesto, but originally, many news outlets only released 11 pages of it. Why? Because it was obvious that Chris Dorner – like the many perpetrators in gun-related massacres in the United States – is decidedly on the Left, politically. He praises Mr. Obama, Hillary Clinton, Joe Biden, Joe Scarborough, Chris Matthews, and many, many others who endorse policies that would remove our rights.

⁶⁹ <http://www.palookavillepost.com/2013/02/07/feinstein-and-boxer-ask-californians-to-lay-down-their-weapons-during-statewide-manhunt/> (2/9/2013)

Dorner believes that the 2nd Amendment should be severely abridged or removed altogether. His rambling 22-page manifesto shows a man who has gone over the edge and believes that the government can save us from the ills of society. Of course, he would not include himself in the category of people suffering from the “ills” from which he believes our government can save us. He believes he is simply making a “statement,” which unfortunately is taking the lives of innocent people.

Without even using a crystal ball, I can easily predict that we will probably see and experience more false flags in the near future. Whether the government is behind them or not, it needs them because they work effectively and quickly to overwhelm a society that allows politicians to make policy and law not based on the Constitution, but on emotion and the majority opinion. Unfortunately, this is not the way America – as a Constitutional Republic – was designed, but it is certainly something our current leaders (and the elite behind them) want us to forget.

Chapter 13

Other Secret Societies

Besides the previously discussed House of Rothschild, there are several other societies that work in secret below the radar and at the behest of the Rothschilds-controlled Illuminati. I've briefly mentioned them already. It is a known – yet denied – fact that the Skull and Bones society of Yale is simply a European Illuminati offshoot in America.

"The Federal Reserve Act of 1913, brought about the decimation of the U.S. Constitution and was the determining act of the international financiers in consolidating financial power in the United States. Pierre Jay, initiated into the 'Order of Skull and Bones' in 1892, became the *first Chairman of the New York Federal Reserve Bank. A dozen members of the Federal Reserve can be linked to the same 'Order'."*⁷⁰

The Order of the Skull and Bones (or simply The Order) is understood to be a secret club at Yale University. Most who have even a cursory knowledge of Skull & Bones likely think of it as a harmless boys' club, much like fraternities or sororities at most colleges throughout the United States. However, there is likely much more to Skull and Bones than meets the eye.

We know that several presidents and many individuals involved in aspects of our government have roots at Yale and in the Skull and Bones. Some of the more well-known and modern members are many of the Rockefellers, George H. W. Bush (and his grandfather, Prescott), and John Kerry. These folks stick together, too.

Members of this group are supposed to deny that they are actually members, and certainly this alone is unlike any normal fraternity on campus. Even Masons do not worry about denying they are part of the Fraternal Order of Freemasonry.

Denying that one is a member of a group immediately invokes the idea that there must be something sinister about it. So what is the actual purpose of The Order? It must exist to accomplish something. What is it?

Generally speaking, The Order of Skull and Bones is thought to be an extension of the British secret society known as The Group. (Some even believe that it goes back to a German secret society of the 1800s known as the Thule Society.)

As such, The Order here in the U.S. serves to function as an arm of The Group in Britain. The goal of both of these groups is stated succinctly

⁷⁰ <http://www.redicecreations.com/specialreports/2005/08aug/redshield.html>
(12/08/2012)

by Cecil Rhodes (founder of the Rhodes Scholarship Foundation) in his last will and testament: *"The extension of British rule throughout the world, the perfecting of a system of emigration from the United Kingdom and of colonization by British subjects of all lands...and the ultimate recovery of the United States of America as an integral part of the British Empire."*⁷¹

All secret societies throughout the world appear to work together to bring about the coming new world order (NWO). Each society has different responsibilities in bringing this about, and many of those responsibilities cross over from one society to the other. This is done in many ways of course, and just some of these ways are listed below.

- Education: how the population of the future will behave
- Money: the means of holding wealth and exchanging goods
- Law: the authority to enforce the will of the state
- Politics: the direction of the state
- Economy: the creation of wealth
- History: what people believe happened in the past
- Psychology: the means of controlling how people think
- Philanthropy: so that people think well of the controllers
- Medicine: the power over health, life and death
- Religion: people's spiritual beliefs, the spur to action for many
- Media: what people know and learn about current events
- Continuity: the power to appoint who follows in your footsteps

Skull and Bones began in "1833 at Yale University by General William Huntington Russell and Alphonso Taft who in 1876 became Secretary of War in the Grant Administration."⁷² It is believed that members of Skull and Bones have "penetrated every segment of American society --

⁷¹ http://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/sociopolitica/esp_sociopol_skullbones10.htm
(12/08/2012)

⁷² http://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/sociopolitica/esp_sociopol_skullbones02.htm
(12/08/2012)

law, education, media, publishing, business, industry, commerce, church, banking, Federal Reserve System, foundations, think tanks, policy groups, legislatures, political parties and the White House-executive branch of the US Government."⁷³ It is clear that for this to have occurred, Skull and Bones, as well as other organizations like it, must have had (and continue to maintain) the type of secrecy that allows its members to infiltrate society with the collective goal of eventually overturning it, replacing it with something else. This will ultimately result in the establishment of the coming NWO, which will affect the entire globe, controlled by a one-world government. This is what the Bible prophetically teaches will occur.

What is interesting is that the Skull and Bones organization was set up with the pirate logo for a reason. It is shown at the beginning of this chapter. If one considers the fact that if any ship noticed another ship flying the skull and bones flag approaching, they knew there was trouble ahead. This is the image that the Order of the Skull and Bones wishes to project. Pirates illegally gain access to ships and normally haul off with the spoils, as well as taking people captive.

Members of the Skull and Bones are given important positions in society, and from those positions are essentially afforded the opportunity to plunder society politically and financially. Many of the members of Skull and Bones become established in political groups and organizations such as Council on Foreign Affairs (CFR), the Trilateral Commission, and others.

George H. W. Bush became the head of the CIA, an Ambassador to India, and of course, president of the United States. Interestingly enough, there are connections between Bush, Sr.'s grandfather Prescott Bush and Hitler. Allegedly, Prescott Bush benefitted from his bank's association with Hitler and the gold that they held for the Nazis.

⁷³ http://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/sociopolitica/esp_sociopol_skullbones02.htm
(12/08/2012)

One Internet news source – the Guardian – “obtained confirmation from newly discovered files in the US National Archives that a firm of which Prescott Bush was a director was involved with the financial architects of Nazism.”⁷⁴ What is fascinating here is that even though it was never proven that Prescott Bush sympathized or was in collusion with the Nazis, it does show us that like the Rothschilds, many within the Illuminati or other secret societies support both sides of various wars for the two-fold purpose of 1) making themselves wealthier, and 2) gaining control over a nation or government. It always comes back to this two-fold paradigm.

In reality, it may well have been that, as opposed to directly supporting Hitler, Bush and others were supporting German industrialist Fritz Thyssen. “While there is no suggestion that Prescott Bush was sympathetic to the Nazi cause, the documents reveal that the firm he worked for, Brown Brothers Harriman (BBH), acted as a US base for the German industrialist, Fritz Thyssen, who helped finance Hitler in the 1930s before falling out with him at the end of the decade. The Guardian has seen evidence that shows Bush was the director of the New York-based Union Banking Corporation (UBC) that represented Thyssen's US interests and he continued to work for the bank after America entered the war.”⁷⁵

The truth of the matter certainly seems to be that members of many of these secret societies and organizations go where the average person dare not go. Because of societies like Skull and Bones, many individuals have apparently continued the hold on our government that originally came through the Rothschilds' Illuminati decades ago.

⁷⁴ <http://www.guardian.co.uk/world/2004/sep/25/usa.secondworldwar> (12/08/2012)

⁷⁵ Ibid

The Federal Reserve

I mentioned briefly the creation of the Federal Reserve and how its existence began to work immediately to destroy the United States Constitution. Once that began, the only way to undo that damage would be to eliminate the Federal Reserve. There is no way this will happen because of the tremendous power exercised by those who control it. The Federal Reserve was manipulated into existence because of the fears deliberately created by the banking cartel in 1907. Officially, the Federal Reserve Act was created in 1913. Note that roughly 16 or so years later, America experienced the Great Depression, which occurred directly because of the crash on Wall Street. There were many behind-the-scenes reasons this crash occurred. I believe – as do many – that it was done intentionally, with malice aforethought, in order to gain even greater control of America's finances, while making the rich elite richer still.

In short, the Federal Reserve (or more commonly known as simply "The Fed") was created to address the panic related to money situations throughout the United States. These "panics" had been occurring for years. So the stated goal of the Fed was to keep these panics from occurring so that the financial institutions within the U.S. continued to run smoothly. However, the Great Depression occurred only a few short years later. This would lead one to believe that the Fed was completely ineffective (or was it?), yet it continues to this day.

"Whoever controls The Federal Reserve bank of New York controls the FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM. The FEDERAL RESERVE BANK of New York IS the FEDERAL RESERVE in which stockholders own. This is why Hillary Clinton wanted to become the Senator of New York in the 2000 Elections. New York is where all the money is controlled in addition to The Council of Foreign Relations, THE UNITED NATIONS, AND THE Trilateral Commission who are sponsored by inner circles of the wealthiest families in the world, who have a One World Economic Agenda.

*"The controlling interest of the FEDERAL RESERVE is held by about a dozen international banking establishments, and only four of them are located in the United States. The rest of the banking establishments owning stock in the FEDERAL RESERVE are EUROPEAN, with the most influence of these being the Rothschild family of London."*⁷⁶

Of course, this is exactly why people in our government did not want any type of centralized (or decentralized) bank to exist. The second paragraph in the above quote reminds us that the controlling interest of America's Federal Reserve is held by roughly twelve international banking establishments. What that means is that these banks own part of America's sovereignty, since they control our finances and value of our currency.

It is the same with the UN. The more sovereignty we give to the UN, the more control they gain over the United States. While we might be able to slow the process, I don't believe we can completely stop it, because I do not believe that the powers that be will give up on their attempted overreach into our country. We have too many puppets in Washington, DC (including Mr. Obama) that are working for the global elite and will do whatever they can to give the elite whatever they ask for, whether it is good for the United States or not.

The terrible truth is that United States was literally "purchased" not too long after its founding. As time has moved on, more of the United States sovereignty has been chipped away by these same groups. Every president who has participated in this "give away" to the higher powers of the banking elite is a traitor to this country. There are no ifs, ands, or buts about that.

Our current president – Mr. Obama – is, I believe, someone who was purposefully installed as president in order to ram through government as many policy changes as possible that serve only to benefit the global elite and put this nation on the fast track to global governance. The reason people like Mr. Obama have given into the global elite is simple. It is the oldest excuse in the book: greed. The global elite promise its agents and workers that they will be rewarded with wealth and accompanying power if they do the bidding of the elite.

⁷⁶ http://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/sociopolitica/esp_sociopol_fed02.htm
(12/08/2012)

The problem, of course, is that the global elite are largely a closed unit. It began with the Rothschilds, and unless you are either born into that empire or specifically invited into it, you don't get in. All people on the outside who work on behalf of the global elite are simply agents of the elite, nothing more. There are people who are extremely valuable to the elite and have been used by them for decades to accomplish the purposes the elite seek, but they still remain outside that closed group.

However, once the elite establish their plan, will these agents really be needed any longer? Are they disposable? I believe many are, and maybe that is not something these people have really thought about seriously.

Once Mr. Obama's second term as president is over, will he be of any real use to the global elite? I'm sure he thinks he will, but that's his arrogance talking. He is being thoroughly used by the powers that be to enhance their position in this world. Mr. Obama's protection exists because he has willingly jumped on board for the global elite so that they will be able to work through him to bring about major change in the United States. He came from nothing and he will likely go back to nothing when they are done with him.

I'm not sure that the global elite could have chosen a better individual at this time in history than Mr. Obama, frankly. He represents black people, even though his mother was white and his real father was mainly of Arab descent. That doesn't matter because he is largely accepted as being black. He also has a background steeped in Islam. He understands what being a Muslim means. Because of that, he can comfortably work with other Muslims seemingly for their interests, all the while remaining completely tied to the interests of his handlers and those above them. I firmly believe that this is why we are seeing so much happening under Mr. Obama that we have not seen under previous administrations with respect to the encroachment of Islam in this country, as well as the move toward National Socialism.

The closest we came was during the Bill Clinton administration when the first attempt to create socialized medicine was underway. It didn't work, and because Clinton is white, people were free to disagree with him and call his plan what is actually was – socialized medicine – without fear of being labeled racist. Even reporters back then were calling it that.

Now that we have someone in the White House who is truly a minority by being a person of color, the race card is used frequently to crush the cries from society who are opposed to Obamacare. The race card is being played constantly by journalists, politicians, and even by average people. Once again I will say that the global elite have chosen well by installing Mr. Obama as president.

Mr. Obama is a useful puppet now. There is no guarantee that he will continue to be useful to the global elite once his second term is over unless they have plans for him beyond the presidency. The global elite must continue to work fast to get as many things in place as possible during Mr. Obama's second and final term as president. They have to move ahead quickly, bulldozing anything or anyone that stands in their way. This extends to the UN to ratify treaties.

Even though the Senate did not ratify the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (or CRPD) treaty with the UN, it will not end there. Other things will be attempted and pushed through. More treaties will come up before the United States and the pressure will be to pass them. Whether it's the CRPD, the Arms Trade Treaty, the treaty that grants sovereignty over the Internet to someone else, or another treaty altogether, the fact is that these things will come fast and furious (no pun intended) so that the politicians in Washington, DC will be overwhelmed, sure thing. Treaties and laws may simply wind up passing, just like Obamacare did, without Congressmen fully reading through the documentation, just because others in their party were signing on.

What we are witnessing is a tremendous spiritual blindness that the average individual does not know how to deal with, and because of that, things are picking up steam and moving us toward a one-world government faster than ever. We – as Christians – need to be aware of what is happening in our government, our society, and our world so that we are not taken in by it.

I just finished writing another book called God is in Control, and that is the truth we need to see and realize on a daily basis. God is in control and He is simply allowing these things to take place in society so that it will reach the point where Antichrist steps onto the stage and begins his upward climb to global dominance. A head-to-head combat is on the way, pitting Antichrist against Jesus Christ.

We are moving toward the time when Antichrist will gather the forces of this earth in a feeble attempt to keep God the Son from returning to this earth. The global elite are not aware of this, but Satan is, and that is why he is doing everything he can to create that final Gentile one-world kingdom (highlighted in the book of Daniel), led by Antichrist, Satan's man. He is putting all of his eggs in that one future basket.

The global elite believe they will be rewarded with great power and all manner of materialistic blessing because of their unfaltering service to Lucifer for many generations. What about those within the global elite who have died, while others carry on the tasks they began? How does that work?

Like the Egyptian Pharaohs of old, those members of the global elite fully believed (prior to their deaths) that they would be resurrected once Lucifer was able to establish his earthly kingdom. They would be resurrected and perfected, allowing them to serve Lucifer as never before.

For the global elite, life does not end in death. They look forward to a resurrection that allows them to work for and reign with their king and god, Lucifer. The Bible tells us that there is a resurrection after this life, but it is not the kind of resurrected life the global elite envision. Tragically, after their death here, they will realize to their sheer horror that they have fallen into the hands of the Living God (cf. Hebrews 10:31).

Chapter 14

Return of The Christ

As we've discussed, the United Nations is largely a spiritual organization. While they work to bring physical peace to the earth, they do so through a spiritual foundation that has opened the door to the spiritual realm. Through that door have come forces, powers, and principalities that have one plan, one goal in mind. It is to create within global society a place for Satan to become the leader of the world through his "son," the Antichrist.

Whether the Antichrist will physically be Satan's son or not is not really the point. The fact that he will be Satan's spiritual son in every sense tells us what we need to know about this coming ruler.

The UN's concealed purpose is to prepare the way for the coming world prince. Many within the UN as well as within the secret societies and global elite also believe that a day is coming when messiah (or The Christ) will step onto the world's stage. He will turn wrongs into rights and will establish himself as the rightful ruler of this world.

The trouble is that this coming world ruler is not the God of the universe who actually owns all the earth as part of His Creation. The man that we will eventually see ruling this planet in the final Gentile world empire will not truly be the rightful owner. He will instead be a usurper. He will be a pretender to the throne.

This coming individual is someone the Bible refers to as the "man of sin," or the "Antichrist." He will literally be the spiritual son of Satan because he will give himself fully to Satan's purposes and ideals in exchange for wealth and power beyond measure through the kingdoms of the earth. He will truly be the physical embodiment of Satan on earth, and this is exactly what the global elite, secret societies, and the New Age movement work toward.

These people long to see the fruit of their efforts and dreams. They have spent generations working toward this and it would appear that the world is now on the cusp of this major manifestation.

We have seen small pieces of how the House of Rothschilds, the Illuminati, and other secret organizations play into this. Certainly, there is a greater depth that we can go to, but there are not enough pages in this book to adequately represent what we know about them.

We understand that these groups all play their part in moving the world toward a new world order, headed by a one-world government. It will be at that point that Satan will be able to step out of the shadows as the Antichrist and take his seat as ruler.

These groups have been actively working behind the scenes to make things happen that will solidify the earth as one. They began by gaining control of the finances of many nations and continued from there. Once they gained control of the purse strings, they were then able to take control of large portions of the government. They were also able to purchase controlling interests in most of the media so that the media could be turned to their purposes as well. Little by little, they have taken control of all major areas of society, including education of our young, so that resistance to their ideas could be eliminated early on through multiple avenues of propaganda. Their work has been difficult, but for the most part, they have succeeded.

So how does the UN fit into all this? What part do they play? We've learned that the UN exists on a strong foundation of occultic spiritism. From that vantage point, they work – literally through the spiritual realm – to convince other members of the UN that seeking a higher path of spirituality will help bring about the goals that the UN seeks to employ throughout the world: mainly world peace.

Just as the banking cartel of the global elite (along with all of their secret societies and subsidiaries) work in this world to take control of the physical aspects of society, the UN works to gain hold of society through spiritual means. The end goal is the same but the method of achieving it is different.

When we think of the UN, we must remember the fact that there are many within the UN who fully believe that they are helping to bring a world ruler to the fore, an event which will then usher in world peace. In other words, the UN believes it will be the direct revealing arm of the coming messiah (what they call the return of the Christ) and the peace that he will be able to achieve.

This is not something that the global elite can boast that they are attempting to achieve directly through their specific avenues of accomplishment. However, this is what the UN boasts and what it is attempting to achieve.

In some ways, this is all part of the same coin, though. The global elite lay the groundwork in the physical world by helping the entire world move toward a one-world government. Once that is somewhat in place, the goals of the UN – to bring forth the final world ruler, and the peace they believe will follow, through spiritual means – will be realized shortly after that. It's all connected.

So let's take a few minutes as we finish up to discuss the spiritual significance and importance of the UN's work in bringing the world ruler to the world. We may find it to be fully enlightening.

"Benjamin Creme's teachings go hand in hand with those of Alice Bailey who, under the guidance of an ectoplasmic apparition from hell (Djwhal Khul... 'The Tibetan'), wrote some 24 books and founded the Lucis Trust (formerly Lucifer Publishing Co.) which enjoys 'Consultative Status' with the United Nations and has not only spawned several other organization... the Arcane School, Triangles, World Goodwill, Lucis Publishing, Lucis Productions, Lucis Trust Libraries, the New Group of World Servers, but also maintain the UN meditation room.

*"And the purpose of these groups? At their core ALL of them exist for one purpose...in their words 'the helping of the Great Ones and the rendering to Them of that intelligent assistance which will make their plans for humanity materialize.' A plan that is centered around making conditions suitable (By occult meditation and reciting of the Great Invocation) for what they call 'The Reappearance of The Christ.' Except that this Christ has nothing to do with Jesus Christ of the Bible."*⁷⁷

You may or may not have heard of Benjamin Crème. If not, know that he is what appears to be the channeling mouthpiece for the coming messiah, known as Maitreya. His website constantly boasts about this individual who is believed to soon to appear on this earth.⁷⁸ Moreover, Crème has even given us the name of Maitreya.

⁷⁷ <http://www.inplainsite.org/html/maitreya.html> (12/08/2012)

Crème has stated, regarding Maitreya, that he *“is an Ascended Master, a perfected being who will appear on the scene out of nowhere and take advantage of a pre-existent global power structure that will immediately give him support.”*⁷⁹ Many, like Crème, believe that Maitreya is already in this world and simply waiting for the right time to reveal himself to the entire world. Crème sees himself as someone who has literally become Maitreya’s window on the world until it reaches a point where he will finally disclose himself to us physically.

Regarding the UN and the spiritual work that many believe they are doing to usher in a new age of purity whereby The Christ (Maitreya; the Antichrist) will reign over the world, there are some interesting thoughts provided by Alice Bailey. These are noteworthy because she directly connects the UN with the spiritual powers from the spiritual realms that endeavor to bring forth the coming Christ.

“In further reference to the U.N., Alice A. Bailey in The Reappearance of the Christ said, ‘The Hierarchy is at this time attempting to channel the forces of reconstruction into the Assembly of the United Nations. (The forces of reconstruction are related to the Will aspect of divinity and are effective mainly in relation to those entities, which we call nations.)

“The use of these impersonal energies is dependent on the quality and the nature of the recipient nation; on its measure of true enlightenment and on its point in evolution. Nations are the expression today of the massed self-centeredness of a people and of their instinct to self-preservation.

“The main object of the Hierarchy is so to distribute these constructive energies that the theory of unity may slowly be turned into practice

⁷⁸ <http://www.share-international.org/> (12/08/2012)

⁷⁹ <http://www.inplainsite.org/html/maitreya.html#BCM3> (12/08/2012)

*and the word 'United' may come to have a true significance and meaning.' Also in The Reappearance of the Christ it is stated that the one who works to produce at-one-ment, unification and fusion is generating a slowly growing will-to-unity within the Assembly of the United Nations. This being can only channel His energies through the mass consciousness or through a group conscious entity, such as the U.N."⁸⁰ (emphasis added)

Bailey said quite a few things in this quote related to the work of the UN as well as the deeply spiritual connection upon which the UN is founded and maintained today. Bailey refers to the UN in her writings as a "point of tension" that will ultimately be realized in a worldwide continuum.⁸¹ So, though the UN will originally be seen by many as an intrusive source (point of tension, via treaties, etc.), eventually the entire world will come to embrace the work of the UN in fully uniting all global societies. Interesting, isn't it? Bailey wrote this nearly 100 years ago.

Another organization reflects on the teachings of Alice Bailey: "Let us now consider some thoughts on the reappearance of the Christ in relation to the U.N. The Tibetan Master has said it is in the hands of the masses of right thinking people in every land that the salvation of the world lies and by them the preparatory work for the coming of the Christ will be done."

*"The Tibetan Master says He will come when mankind is ready. It may not be unreasonable to suppose that the Christ may return to Earth through the 'house' of the nations. If He wishes to reach the people of all nations, what better place than the focal point of the nations, humanity's point of tension-the U.N.?"*⁸²

⁸⁰ <http://www.aquaac.org/un/medatun.html> (12/08/2012)

⁸¹ http://www.inplainsite.org/html/the_united_nations.html#UNSignif (12/08/2012)

⁸² Ibid

The Tibetan Master – aka Master D. K., and eventually known as Dwaj Khul – tells us the importance of the United Nations here. Notice that we are told that the Christ is largely dependent upon “right thinking people in every land.” It is how the people of this world choose to think and what they hope to create through their thinking that will be the determining factor in the actual physical return of the Christ.

Of course, it must also be understood that the use of the term “the Christ” is merely the New Age way of speaking of their coming messiah, which the Bible tells us is the Antichrist. The term “the Christ” is representative of “the Christ consciousness,” which is said to already exist within all people; we are all gods, etc.

It would appear then that within the spiritual trenches of the United Nations are those who have been working very diligently to prepare for the coming one who is said to be The Christ. He will take over the rule of this earth, meting out justice allegedly through perfect love.

We also learn that this coming Christ is referred to as the World Spiritual Teacher. “The reappearance will take place on many different levels. There will be a Great Being who will be recognized as the World Spiritual Teacher. Also, this Great Being will bring a vortex of planetary and cosmic energy that will be available to those who can respond to it, inspiring and strengthening the cause of all that which is Good, True and Beautiful. The reappearance also refers to the expression of the Christ or love nature within humanity. It refers to the birth of the Christ nature (the soul) within the ‘cave of the human heart’ (the physical plane).”⁸³

As those connected to the UN (as well as other like-minded organizations throughout the globe) continue to work toward the arrival of the coming Christ, we must ask, what is really keeping this anointed one away? Why has he delayed in coming and what might possibly change that?

⁸³ http://www.inplainsite.org/html/the_united_nations.html#UNSignif (12/08/2012)

According to the Aquarian Age Community, the answer has to do with world peace. “The major requirement for the return of the Christ is a world at peace and this is the objective of the U.N. However, that peace must be based on an educated goodwill, which will lead to right human relations, and therefore to the establishment of lines of light between nation and nation.”⁸⁴

I find this notion absolutely fascinating, if for no other reason than the fact that the global elite have consistently used wars and rumors of war to shake up nations and keep them on edge, while they are constantly yearning for peace. What better way to cause people to want world peace than by constantly creating wars? This process has allowed the elite to become very powerful through the collection of untold billions and billions of dollars through arms sales and financial loans to countries involved in war, as well as other things. The power that they have gained because of this amassed wealth has also given them power over many nations and governments.

It certainly does not appear as though the global elite are playing by the rules of the New Age movement or the United Nations, does it? While it does not seem to appear that way, the truth of the matter is that the global elite have done everything their way in order to move the world toward a one-world government.

A world that is not at war has no reason to fear anything. Take away tension created in the past by communism or the current radical Islam, and what need is there to take up arms? If gun crime did not exist, people would not be crying for more anti-gun laws.

When situations are created throughout society that cause average citizens to fear, there is a resultant need for the government to clamp down on gun violence. Massacres of innocent people by gun-wielding criminals foment fear and tension for the average person. Without fear stemming from these types of situations, the world would have no reason to move toward a global government where the rules apply to everyone across the board and there is no need for personal weapons. It is only when society is kept in a constant state of compromised safety that people look to their respective governments for answers and ultimately with a demand to increase safety throughout society.

⁸⁴ <http://www.aquaac.org/un/medatun.html> (12/08/2012)

For the government to respond to this call for more safety, individual rights need to be forfeited. People will go along with this as long as they feel safer in exchange. That feeling of safety is but an illusion.

As the government gains more control over society, they can then continue moving the world toward the “peaceful” solution of a one-world government that holds no fear of war or civil strife. This is what people want based on the situations that have either been created (false flags) or been allowed to happen in society.

In essence, then, while the UN is undergirded with a spiritual philosophy that calls for unity of purpose through application of spiritual truth, the global elite – while also believing that – works for the same thing from a different perspective. It all concludes with the same goal, but with different means of achieving it: one group supporting the other.

If the global elite via the Illuminati and other secret societies did not do what they have been doing to physically direct society toward the goal of a one-world order, the spiritual emphasis uniting those in the UN would not have tremendous impact. We would not have gotten this far yet.

The physical alterations that have been happening throughout society are undergirded by the spiritual “truths” presented by many within the UN. The application of these spiritual “truths” not only guides those within the UN, but those within the global elite. It is merely a different perspective on achieving the same goal.

So, going back to our quote at the top of page 137, in order for The Christ to return to the earth, there must be peace. The UN is at the forefront of doing whatever it can to create the existence of world-wide peace throughout the globe.

The global elite are doing the same thing. They have done this by first gaining financial control over most nations of the earth. Once they have gained financial control, they can then begin inserting their agents into various positions in the government. These agents will work to ensure that the immediate and long term goals of the global elite are established and will continue. Along the way, the global elite gains control over the media by either purchasing the media directly or by owning companies that own the media. By now, you get the picture. It is all clearly laid out in the 24-volume set of books dictated to Alice Bailey years ago.

Once the elite have control of the media, the media is then used as the propaganda machine to misdirect society, causing the average person to adopt the beliefs that the media wishes them to have. This all comes down from the top and filters throughout the entire media system so that everyone is on the same page. Those who are not and who refuse to play along are seen as the “enemy” and are vilified.

For instance, if the media wants to portray the members of the Tea Party as subversives who are dangerous, that’s what they set out to do, regardless of the facts of a situation. They send reporters out to locations where Tea Party activists have gathered. I saw a number of these types of reports where Tea Party “activists” had simply assembled peacefully. They were not inciting anyone. They were not running amok. They were certainly not defecating on police cars, shooting or raping people, or generally destroying areas where they assembled like the Occupy Movement did routinely. Yet those involved in the Occupy Movement were not slandered, were they?

However, during the course of an interview at a Tea Party event, the one on-location reporter turned to the camera to address the in-studio reporter. She mentioned that the situation was “tense” and it was causing “fear.” The in-studio reporter couldn’t agree more and even parroted what the on-location reporter was saying.

I was amazed because I saw none of that. The Tea Party people were assembled peacefully. They were standing there, many carrying small children. That is not what the news wanted to portray, though, so they chose to embellish the situation to make it seem to be something it was most definitely not.

In other instances, the Tea Party has been portrayed consistently as racist, yet there is not one shred of evidence to support these allegations. Not one shred, yet the media continued to propagate (propaganda) this lie and it worked because other news bureaus and liberal media outlets also picked up on this and it became truth as far as these organizations were concerned. Politicians carried the lie along as well. The term “racist” was liberally applied to the Tea Party, again, in spite of the complete lack of evidence. Truth did not seem to matter.

The global elite have worked hard to gain dominion over nations by controlling their finances. At the same time, the global elite placed their own agents in government positions throughout these same nations and then they managed to manipulate the message that the public hears through their power over the media.

This is all the work of the global elite. It’s what they do, where the rubber meets the road, on a physical level. The spiritual powers foundational to the UN use their spiritual energy to bring about change through the people who are part of that body.

What happens through the connection of nearly 200 nations associated with the UN takes longer and is far more insidious in nature than what the global elite has done and continues to do. Anyone who honestly believes that the average person can change a government that the elite have a firm grip on is being truly naïve.

Some people will point to the changes that have taken place in Iceland after the citizenry essentially fired all politicians, installed a new government, forgave debt, and started over. This will work for now and even for a while, but eventually things will likely fall apart. It may turn out that Iceland still has foreign debt that needs to be repaid. What will happen when/if these foreign nations demand the debt to be repaid now?

There are many things the global elite can do to regain control of Iceland's government that will allow them to gain power over its economy. I cannot imagine that the rebirth of Iceland will last for long before the global elite begins to attack the foundation of that nation. The Bible tells us there will be a one-world government. Iceland will be part of that whether they think so or not. The truth of the matter is that between the global elite and the spiritual forces working through the people at the UN, this world has no chance of not being forced to move toward a one-world government.

The global elite eventually see a world without war. That's because they have very likely created many of the scenarios that have caused war to exist in modern times. Since the global elite makes billions, if not trillions, from wars (through loans, the sale of armaments, etc.), it is not surprising that they would be in favor of them. It does not even matter that they support both sides of many wars because they are guaranteed to make money that way.

It seems very clear that the UN has been at the forefront of pushing this world toward a new spirituality. It is a spirituality that promotes and promises a great hope in the eventual arrival of The Christ.

It is impossible to study the UN without learning of its clandestine foundation and purposes. It seems to have been put in place, as one author has stated, as one of the main *“harbingers for the ‘New Spirituality’ and the gathering ‘New World Order’ based on ancient occult and freemasonic principles.”*⁸⁵

What is most tragic is that because of the blindness that has overwhelmed this current generation, most people simply do not see what has happened, nor do they have a clear understanding of what will happen. They do not see the writing on the wall at all.

The UN is designed to be a spiritual body which moves the world toward a new age in spirituality. This age is the living hope of many throughout the world who believe that we are on the cusp of something big, something revolutionary, and something that will ultimately catapult this entire world toward a new existence, an existence that will look like nothing that has come before it.

The world seems to be waiting with baited breath, at least for those who are in the know concerning the coming events. However, too many people believe that they can focus their efforts on undoing the damage that careless and self-serving politicians have created.

The truth is that what has been occurring throughout the world, including within American society, is due to the plan of Satan, our eternal enemy. He has been moving this planet deliberately towards a one-world government, just as he attempted to do several thousand years ago when he motivated Nimrod to become the first leader of the world (cf. Genesis 11).

Though Satan’s plans were interrupted then, he seems to have been given the go-ahead by God now to recreate what he was attempting to establish in Genesis 11. At that time, he tried and failed to create a one-world government. This time, he will be allowed to succeed because the time now seems right for it to happen, according to God's purposes.

⁸⁵ http://www.theforbiddenknowledge.com/hardtruth/occult_character_un.htm
(12/09/2012)

The spiritual forces that have gained such a tremendous foothold in our world are thanks to both the New Agers and the global elite, who have given themselves over to those dark spiritual forces. The doors, having been opened, will only be closed by Jesus Himself.

In the meantime, we are in for a rough ride, but we need to be constantly aware of the fact that there are multitudes yet who are destined to come to know Jesus as Lord and Savior. Our job is to lean on Him for discernment and awareness so that as society becomes ever darker, we will shine ever brighter because of our love for and devotion to our God in Christ Jesus.

Chapter 15

Gaining Life

Do you know when you will die? Are you aware of the day and hour when you will slip from this life into eternity? I'm betting you are not privy to that information. So why are you living as if you do know when it will happen? Putting a decision about Jesus off until another day is taking a huge chance because of the fact that you do not know when you will die. That is plainly simple, and logic alone demands that you do not put this decision off. Yet you do, because the thought of becoming a Christian makes you feel uncomfortable.

You wrongly believe that to become a Christian means that you have to change in a major way before Jesus will accept you. It means to you giving up the things you love now because if you love them, then obviously they are wrong and God does not love them.

You are putting the cart before the horse. You must understand that God is not rejecting you. He is not standing there, tapping His foot, demanding that you eliminate those things that He does not like before you can come to Him for salvation.

If you (or anyone) could do that, you would not need His salvation at all. It is because you and I do things that are not pleasing to Him that we need His salvation.

What do you do that you would like to no longer do? Do you drink excessively until you cannot control it? Do you play around with drugs? Do you eat too much food until you have become overweight, lethargic and sickly?

What other things are in your life that you do not like? Are you drawn to illicit extra-marital affairs? Do you have a problem with lust? Are you a shopaholic? Do you tend to tell lies a great deal because it makes you feel important, or to hide things about your life?

Do you find that you do not like people and you would prefer to be around animals or out in the woods than around people? Are you a workaholic? Do you place a high value on money and you find that you work very hard to obtain it?

Here's the problem. The enemy of our souls comes to us and tells us that God will never accept us until we get rid of those things. He lies to us that God essentially wants us "perfect" before He will be willing to meet us and grant us eternal life. This is completely untrue.

The other lie that our enemy tells us is that we should not become a Christian because the fun in our life will fly out the door. We will no longer be able to drink or do the fun things we enjoy now. We start to think that coming to God means becoming a doormat for people and having to fill our life with things we do not want to ever do.

These are all lies, and unfortunately, too many people believe them. First of all, God does not expect you to be “perfect” before you come to Him for salvation. If that were the case, no one would be able to ever approach Him.

Secondly, God does not say that He is going to take away all the things we enjoy and replace them with things we hate. What is wrong with enjoying the lake on your boat? What is wrong with spending a day with the family fishing or just relaxing in the mountains? There is nothing wrong with these things.

What God will do is begin to remove the things that have ensnared you so that life is actually draining from you, but you are not aware of it. For instance, maybe you drink excessively and you have tried everything you can think of to quit. You have gone to AA meetings, spent thousands of dollars on this program or that, and you have even used your own will power to free yourself from the addiction to alcohol, all to no avail.

The question is not: do I need to quit before I come to Jesus? The question is: am I willing to allow Him to work in and through me to take away the addiction I have to alcohol? Do you see the difference? Are you willing to allow Him to work in you to break that addiction so that you will become a healthier person, one who is able to think straight and one who learns to rely on Him for strength? That is all He wants you to be able to do. He knows you cannot break that addiction (or any addiction for that matter) with your own strength and willpower. Are you willing to allow Him to do it in and through you?

What if you are a workaholic? What if you have “things” like a boat, a house in Cancun, a large bank account, four cars, and more? Do you think that God is going to ask you to give it up, or worse, do you think that God will simply come in and take all of that from you? I know of nothing in Scripture that tells us He will do that.

What God will do with all of those who come to Him trusting Him for salvation is one thing, which begins the moment we receive salvation and will continue until the day we stand before Him. He will begin to create within us the character of Jesus (cf. Ephesians 2:10).

Here is a verse from the Old Testament that was said originally through the prophet Ezekiel to the people of Israel. While this was specifically stated to the Jews, it is applicable to all who receive salvation through Jesus Christ.

"I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will take the heart of stone out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them" (Ezekiel 36:26-27).

God is speaking here through Ezekiel, and He is saying that He will give the people a new heart of flesh, removing that old heart of stone. This is God's responsibility. God is the One who makes that happen. We are told in the book of Hebrews that God is the Author and Finisher of our faith (cf. Hebrews 12:2). This tells me that God is the One who changes me from within so that over time, my desires are slowly turned into His desires.

I recall years ago thinking that God wanted to do everything in my life that I did not want Him to do. I fell into the asinine belief that He wanted to change everything about me. What I learned is that yes, there are things that God does want to change about me. However, there is a lot that God originally gave me that He has also enhanced and used for His glory.

Maybe you are a workaholic who thinks that working hard is something God does not want you to do. This is not necessarily the case.

He may have given you the ability and the knowledge to work in the area of finance for a great purpose. All He may wind up doing is dialing back your workaholic tendencies so that you have more time to enjoy your family and study His Word.

But you say you smoke, or drink, or use illegal drugs, and you don't want to give those up. As I stated, you can't give those up under your own power, and the fact that you have tried so many times has proven it to you.

But God knows what is and what is not good for you. Are you willing to allow Him to work in you to change your desires so that you no longer want to smoke, use illegal drugs, or drink nearly as much?

Then you say that you believe God wants to make you a Christian so you can become miserable. Isn't that what most Christians are – miserable? Not the Christians I know, and certainly not me, my wife, or our children.

Where does the Bible say that God wants us miserable? You will not find it. What God wants is for us to be blessed, and that begins when we receive salvation from His hand.

You know, if we would stop and take the time to consider the fact that this life is exceedingly short if we compare it to eternity, we will then realize that there is nothing so important that it should keep us from receiving Jesus as Savior and Lord.

Unfortunately, too many people do not consider the brevity of life. They think they will live forever, or at the very least, they will die when they are really old and gray. That will come too soon. Even though I'm in my mid-fifties, it still truly seems like yesterday that I was a young boy fishing in the Delaware River near Hobart, New York. There I spent many Saturdays fishing and simply enjoying being outdoors. How did life go by so very quickly? How could that have happened?

It has happened, and I am at a point in life where not only do I realize that this life is short, but I actually look forward to spending eternity with Jesus after this life. Does that sound morbid to you? It shouldn't, because by comparing this life to eternity, we should get a sense of what is truly important.

God does not expect us to become Mother Theresas. He does not necessarily expect us to give up everything and become missionaries in outer Mongolia. What God expects is for us to simply allow Him to change our character and work through us as He sees fit.

Over time, we may well find that we have simply stopped swearing without realizing it. Our desire for cigarettes or alcohol has nearly evaporated. Illicit affairs no longer enter the picture.

We also may find that some of the things we want to eliminate in our life become more pronounced. Often the enemy will do this to cause us to focus on something that God is not even doing in our lives at that point. It causes tension, frustration, and self-anger.

If you have gotten to this point in your life and you have not dealt with the question about Jesus, it is about time you do so. You need to stop what you are doing and realize a couple of things before you go through another minute in this life.

- Sinner: you need to realize that you are a sinner. You have sinned and you will continue to sin. Sin is breaking the laws that God has set up. We all sin. We have all broken God's laws and that breaks any connection we might have had with God. Sin pushes us away from Him.

Romans 3:23 says, "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." That means you and that means me. All means all. That is the first step. We need to recognize and agree with God that yes, we are sinners. I'm a sinner. You are a sinner. This results in God's anger, what the Bible terms "wrath."

- God's Wrath: Romans 1:18 says, "For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness."

This is as much a fact as the truth that we are all sinners. Because we are sinners – by breaking God's law(s) – God has every right to be angry with us and ultimately destroy that which is sinful. If we choose to remain "in" our sinful states throughout this life, we will – unfortunately – be destroyed with the rest of sin.

Fortunately, there is a remedy, and it is salvation.

- God's Gift: In the sixteenth chapter of Acts, a jailer asks Paul this famous question: what must I do to be saved? The question was asked because Paul and Barnabas had been imprisoned, and while there, they began singing praises to God.

God then sent a powerful earthquake that opened the doors to all the prison cells, yet no one escaped. When the jailer arrived, he saw that everyone was still in their cells, and after seeing that miracle (what prisoner would not want to escape from prison?), turned and asked what he must do to be saved. He was speaking of the spiritual aspect of things. He wanted to know how he could be guaranteed eternal life.

The answer Paul gave the man was, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house" (Acts 16:31).

This is not head knowledge or intellectual assent. This is believing from the heart. In fact, Paul makes a very similar statement in another book he wrote, Romans. He says, “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation” (Romans 10:9-10).

When we fully believe something, we confess that it is true. It must begin in the heart because that is where the will is located. We must want to believe. We must endeavor to believe. We must seek to believe.

We must stop giving ourselves all the reasons to deny or ignore Jesus. As God, He became a Man, born of a virgin. He clothed Himself with humanity that He might show us how to live, and in so doing, would keep every portion of the law.

If Jesus was capable of keeping every portion of the law, then He would be found worthy to become a sacrifice for our sin – yours and mine. If He became a sacrifice for our sin, then all that we must do is embrace Him and His sacrificial death.

In short then, to become saved we must:

1. Admit (we sin)
2. Repent (want to turn away from it)
3. Believe (that Jesus is the answer)
4. Embrace (the truth about Jesus)

We admit that we are sinner, that we have sinned. This is nothing more than agreeing with God that we have broken His law. Can you honestly say that you have not broken God’s law? If you admit to breaking even the “smallest” law, then you are a lawbreaker.

After we admit that we have sinned, the next step is found in repenting. Some believe that repenting is actually moving away from sin. This author believes that it is a willingness to move away from sin, and there is a difference.

As we have already discussed, it is impossible to stop sinning. Human beings simply cannot do it because as long as we live, we will have a sin nature, which is something within us that gives us a propensity to sin. As long as we have this inner propensity to sin or break God's laws, we will never be perfect in this life.

We cannot one day say, "Lord, I promise to stop sinning." If we do that, we are only kidding ourselves and setting ourselves up for major failure. We cannot stop sinning in this life. The most we can do is want to stop sinning and then spend the rest of our lives allowing God to create the character of Jesus within us, slowly, little by little.

Repenting is to decide that you no longer want to do the things that keep us out of heaven. We no longer wish to break God's laws. It is not promising God that we will never sin again.

Once we admit, then repent, we must believe. This is one of the most difficult things to do because believing that Jesus died in our place, that He lived a perfectly sinless life, is extremely difficult to believe. Our minds cannot grasp that truth. We must ask God to open our eyes to that truth so that we can embrace it.

While on the cross next to Jesus, the one thief joined the other thief in ridiculing Jesus. Then, all of a sudden – as we read in Luke 23 – this same thief that had just been ridiculing Him now turned to Him with a new understanding.

It was this new understanding that prompted the thief to say to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when you come into your Kingdom." Jesus looked at the man and responded to him, "Today, you will be with me in paradise."

What had occurred in the mind and heart of that thief from one moment to the next? One thing, and that one thing was that God opened the thief's eyes so that he could see the truth. It was as if the blinders fell off and he now saw and understood who Jesus was, even to the most cursory degree that Jesus was dying not for Himself, but for others.

It was this understanding, this awareness, which prompted the man to ask Jesus to simply be remembered. Jesus went way beyond it to promise the man that he would be with Jesus that day in paradise.

Please notice in Luke 23 that there is nothing in the chapter that tells us that the man promised Jesus he would give up sin, or that he would never sin again. There is nothing that tells us that thief took the time to enter into a final deathbed confession of his sins so that he could be absolved.

The thief made no promises to Jesus at all. What he experienced was the truth of who Jesus was and what Jesus accomplished for humanity. Jesus accomplished what we cannot. What is left is for each person to admit, repent, believe, and embrace.

Let me clarify here that though we do not see any verbal repentance from the thief, we know that he did repent. He admitted as well. How can we know this? Simply due to the thief's complete about-face with respect to his attitude toward Jesus. One minute, he was ridiculing Jesus, and the next, embracing Him. This is important. There is no way he could have or would have embraced Jesus had he not been humbled by the truth about Jesus.

Once the thief saw the truth, he was instantly humbled. Within himself, he knew that he was a sinner, and in fact the text states that this is what he told the other thief dying next to him. "But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss" (Luke 23:40-41). Something happened within the heart of the one thief. In one moment, the thief went from harassing Jesus to recognizing his own sinfulness and then ultimately asking for grace, which was freely given to him.

Whether he said it or not, the thief went from haughtiness to humility in a very short space of time, and it was all because he saw the truth about Jesus. That truth helped him realize that he deserved his death and what would happen to him after death. He understood that Jesus did not deserve death.

From here, the thief fully embraced the truth about Jesus and was rewarded with eternal life because of it. He did not come off the cross to be water baptized. He did not list a long litany of offenses against God. He recognized the truth about Jesus, was humbled, and embraced that truth!

This is what each of us needs to do. We cannot give in to the lie that tells us that we are not good enough, or we have not given up enough before God will accept us. We must reject the lie that says we must somehow earn our salvation.

Jesus has done everything that is necessary to make salvation available to us. The only thing that is left for us is to see the truth. Once we see that truth, it should humble us to the point of embracing Jesus and all that He stands for and is to us.

The eighth chapter of Romans begins with the fact that all who trust Jesus for salvation are no longer condemned...ever. All of my sins – past, present, and future – have not only been forgiven, but canceled. It is because of my faith in the atonement (death) of Jesus that God is able to cancel all of my sins, even the ones that I have not committed yet. This does not make me eager to commit them. It makes me want to do what I can to avoid sinning.

If you do not know Jesus, please do not put down this book without deliberately believing that He is God, that He died for you by the shedding of His blood on the cross, and that He rose three days later because death could not keep Him. Do you believe that? If you do not yet believe it, do you want to believe it? If so, then simply ask God to help you come to believe all that Jesus is and all that He has accomplished for you. God will answer your prayers and you may either receive instantaneous awareness of all that Jesus is and has done, or it may be a growing awareness over time. In either case, it is the most important decision you will ever make.

Turn to Him now and pray for knowledge of the truth and an ability to embrace it. Please. He is waiting for you.

Ask Yourself:

1. Do you know Jesus? Are you in relationship with Him? Have you had a spiritual transaction according to John 3?
2. Do you want to receive eternal life through the only salvation that is available?
3. Do you believe that Jesus is God the Son, who was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life, died a bloody and gruesome death to pay for your sin, was buried, and rose again on the third day? Do you believe this?
4. Do you want to embrace the truth from #3?
5. Pray that God will open your eyes and provide you with the faith to begin believing the truth about Jesus. Ask Him to help your faith embrace the truth, realizing that you are not good enough to save yourself and that your sin will keep you out of God's Kingdom without His salvation.
6. Pray as if your life depended upon it because it does!

Visit us online at: www.studygrowknow.com to learn more about our books and our sermons.

STUDY GROW KNOW

StudyGrowKnow.com

Studying to Grow Through Knowledge of God's Word!

DONATE Please consider donating to this ministry through our secure server. Your tax-deductible gift is greatly appreciated.

Theology, Prophecy, and Political Issues from a Conservative Biblical Perspective...

Home
About
Resources
Blog
Books
Donate
Contact

Click to hear our latest radio broadcast!

Dr. Fred DeRuvo | Radio Broadcast
Joseph a Type of Christ powered by: samsonaudio.com
[listen now! you will not leave this page]

Here are more of our radio messages!

Newest: Study-Grow-Know Ministries	MORE HOME RSS
• Joseph a Type of Christ • Dr. Fred DeRuvo	12.03.12 [icon]
• Joseph Forgives His Brothers	11.30.12 [icon]
• Joseph Tests His Brothers	11.28.12 [icon]
• Joseph's Brothers • Dr. Fred DeRuvo	11.26.12 [icon]
• Joseph Lifted Up • Dr. Fred DeRuvo	11.21.12 [icon]

CHRISLAM
Fred DeRuvo
Now Available!

Behind Enemy Lines
Fred DeRuvo
Available NOW! Click image

CORNERSTONE
PAYMENT SYSTEMS

We are now using Cornerstone Payment Systems to process all of our donations and book purchases. Cornerstone is a Christian Organization and offers a very secure way to process payments/donations.

Sign-up for our free Mailing List/Newsletter
Name:
E-mail:

Or send a request to fred_deruvo@hotmail.com
You will receive occasional e-mails from us. Your information will never be sold or given away.

Need a Book Professionally Edited?
Email Hannah at:
hannah.lo.richards@gmail.com
We highly recommend her!

You can now download our iPhone app for exclusive direct audio and video content to your Smart phone!
Get our app at the App Store!

Home • About • Resources • Blog • Books PayPal • Books • Books 2 • Books 3 • Donate • Contact

© 2011 Study-Grow-Know. All rights reserved.

All of our books are free to download as PDFs!